June Pafford Anderson

PAFFORD SYNOPSIS 1765-1870

James William Pafford, born 1765/66 in England, died September 20/23, 1848, in North Carolina, United States of America.

Year 1780 I believe his father was John Pafford of South Carolina, an addressor of Sr. Henry Clinton. John was a "loyalist" during the Revolutionary War period. In 1780, his estates were confiscated and he was banished.

Year 1780 Records show that James William was 15 years old and living in Rowan Co., North Carolina. He became an apprentice to a Mr. Davis.

In 1781, at age 16, he joined the Continental Army as a "drummer boy.". The full enlistment time was for nine months.

In 1790, James William Pafford and his family were counted in the First Federal Census of the United States. He is the only Pafford listed in the census of the original 13 states. The census lists him, his wife, 2 sons under age 16, and 4 daughters. They live in Stokes County, North Carolina. Rowan County was divided into Surrey Co. in 1771, and Stokes Co. in 1789.

1800 Census of N. Carolina The James William Pafford family is the only Pafford family listed. They still live in Stokes Co., N.C.

1807 James William took in Hiram Mabe, age 8, the orphaned son of Sarah Mabe. A neighbor, John Carr, took in one of the girls. There were 4 orphans in all. James William will later marry a young woman, named Haney Mabe Bullings, a widow. She will be his third wife and the mother of his last child - a daughter named Politha.

1810 Census of N. Carolina The family still lives in Stokes Co., N.C. William, his wife, one daughter, and 3 sons under the age of 16 are listed. One son is shown to be under the age of 1 year. These sons are: John Franklin (1796), William C. or William M. - middle initial uncertain, but I believe name is William Marion - born 1798/1800 and Randolph (also Randol, Randle, Randall) born in 1810. According to my Grandfather, Benjamin Franklin Pafford, the Pafford family came from Marion, England. Several of the children from the early generations were also named "Marion."

In 1810, a new line of Paffords came to America. In the 1810 Census of North Carolina - with names gathered from other sources, a Thomas Pafford is listed. Thomas and his 16 year old son, James, emigrated to the United States in 1810. Descendants inform me that Thomas and his son entered this country from Barbados in the British West Indies. They went to Stokes County., N.C., where William and his family were living. Thomas was born somewhere around 1750-1760. He was older than James William who was born 1765/66. The two were obviously related but I don't know the connection at this time. A descendant of Thomas Pafford wrote a book on their family that might shed some light on their kinship. I hope to obtain this book later. This book is supposed to include ancestors to about 739 A.D.

1820 Census of North Carolina James William Pafford, age 53, lives in Stokes Co. N.C. No wife or family is listed. Apparently his first wife is dead.

1826 Records show James William and wife Betsy, age 34, living with the William Young family. I don't know what happened to Betsy. In James William's request for a Revolutionary War pension, he notes that Betsy is a "sickly and weakly woman."

1830 Census of North Carolina James William lives in Stokes Co., N.C. No family is listed.

1839 James William, age 74, married the widow, Bethaney "Haney" Mabe Bullings, born 1803, age 36, on March 3, 1839. Haney would have been 4 years old in 1807 when William took in Hiram Mabe. I believe Haney may have been one of the orphans. Haney and James William had 1 daughter. Her name was Politha. Politha married A. J. Duggins.

1840 Census of North Carolina James William Pafford now lives in Tyrell Co. on the Eastern N. C. seacoast. No family listed. However, other records show that Haney and Politha are living.

1848 James William Pafford died September 20/23, 1848, and was buried in Nash Co., N. C.

Haney and Politha returned to Stokes Co. where they lived "7 miles E. of the courthouse." Haney died April 8, 1864.

TENNESSEE MIGRATION

Apparently the first Paffords who came to Tennessee were Thomas Pafford and his family. The 1820 Tennessee Census shows Thomas and his son James (now age 26 and married) living in Warren Co. DeKalb Co. was formed in 1837 from Warren, Cannon, and White Counties. The present county seat of Dekalb Co. is Smithville. In the early 1800's, the main Southern migration route into Tennessee came through McMinnville - county seat of Warren County. Several records show that other members of the Pafford family stopped off in DeKalb Co. before moving on to West Tennessee.

For some reason, Thomas' wife and children are not listed on the 1820 census records. Thomas has a wife named Nancy, born 1780, and 6 children. Three of these are: Susannah, born 1808; Etherey (female) born 1812, and son Willie born 1810/20.

1824 Records show that Cooper Melton registered a claim for land in Benton Co. Cooper Melton and his son-in-law, William Pafford, were in Tennessee surveying land in 1824. John Franklin (1796) and William (1798-1800) both married daughters of Cooper Melton before leaving N.C. John Franklin married Mary Sarah and William married Mourning.

1830 Tenn. Census - William Pafford (1798/1800) is living in Humphreys Co. - later divided to form Benton Co.

1840 Tenn. Census

Both the William and John Pafford families are listed as living in Benton Co.

The youngest brother, Randolph (also spelled Randol, Randle, Randall) born 1810, and his family are shown living in DeKalb Co. Randolph later moved to Benton Co. and served with other family members in the Confererate Army during the Civil War. He left for Texas in 1888. He died at Maxey, Texas on 10/25/1905.

Thomas Pafford, age 80-90 yrs., 1 female 30-40, and 1 male 5-10 are also shown as living in DeKalb Co.

A Wealthy Pafford is shown as living in H. (?) County. The census shows 1 male age 5-10, 1 male 30-40, and 0 females. (I believe this information is wrong since "Wealthy"sounds like a male name. James Pafford, son of Thomas, married Welthy Corbitt, born 1800-1880. I believe this is James' wife and son. James is no longer listed and I assume he has died.) I also believe that Welthy and her son were the ones listed with Thomas. It was fairly common in the early censuses to be counted twice.

1850 Census of Tennessee

Many of William and John's families are living in Benton Co.

Thomas Pafford lives in the same DeKalb Co. district. His wife, Nancy, age 70, is shown living with her daughter and husband, Etherey and Charles Hill.

Randolph and his family are still living in Dekalb Co.

1860 Census of Tennessee - shows only Willie Pafford (age 45) and family in Rutherford Co. All other Paffords are in Benton Co. All the Civil War soldiers are from Benton Co. The war was from 1861-65.

Census of 1870 - All Paffords are in Benton County.

Dear June,

Needless to say I was surprised to receive your letter! I had forgotten all about my note to G.H. You are a dear to answer, and I appreciated your input; I find I do have a couple of dates to change, and have.

You might also be interested in knowing (if you do not already) of two other people I have been in contact with who are researching the PAFFORD line, namely:

Vivian Jordan (works in a genealogical library)
1530 Hawthorne Street
Houston, Tx 77006

and

Jackie Whitten
Alamo, TN 38001

Since I began my inquiry into my past a couple of years ago, I have read GH regularly, and have contacted many people through that publication. I also have corresponded with a number of people in England. I have organized my information as best I can thus far, and I am enclosing a copy for you. Obviously there are some big gaps in my "tree". But, my wife is retiring this winter, and next spring we are moving back home to Va., and then I shall prowl the cemetaries, county seats, and the big libraries in Washington to fill in the gaps as best I can.

I am also enclosing some other material I have collected for whatever use it may be to you.

Presuming you kept a copy of your handwritten letter to me, I shall try to respond to it page by page and answer some of the questions you raised.

Our line is confusing (!) because many of our early ancestors used the same name and no Jr's. One John Henry Pafford (married to Martha Ann Hutton) was my great-grandfather, and was born in 1803 in Smyth Co., Va.

The other John Henry Pafford (married to Sara Ann Keyes) was from Stokes County, NC, and I think they are not related.

When the families began to come to the colonies, some landed in Jamestown or Norfolk, and drifted west into the Va. hills; others landed at Charleston, SC, and drifted either into North Carolina (which is faltter and better suited to farming), or down into Georgia. (more later).

Page 2:

As I mentioned, John Henry Pafford of Virginia, married to Martha Ann Hutton, was my great-grandfather.

One of his children was James Robert Pafford, born in 1856 in Smythe County, Va., who married Mary Ellen Blackard. They had 6 children; one was Luther Thomas Pafford - my father.

I do not know the William Pafford who married Mary Ann Hutton in 1945. The one slim possibility I can think of is that I had a first cousin named Billy Pafford who was the son of Frank Lee Pafford who was another of James Robert's and Mary Ellen's son and my father's brother. (born July 1896).

I also have some documentation concerning a bricklayer named John Pafford who was a British subject at the time of the Revolution. He was pressured to join the colonists in the rebellion, but refused; his properties and monies were confisticated and he was thrown in jail, as I recall, from 1779 to 1780, and a second time a little later. After the war he returned to England and petitioned the courts for restitution of L 5,130; this was refused and he returned to South Carolina where he died later.

That annual reunion near you sounds like a lot of fun. When we return to Virginia next ye we shall be settling in Wytheville, Va., near Marion and not too far away. I'd like to attend in 1992 if I may.

Oh, I mentioned more later about Georgia. I was in the Marine Corps in WW II, and after college at William & Mary I was recealled in 1951 right after graduation, commissioned and sent to Korea. Two days after arriving I got a phone call from a Major in another unit who was named Pafford. I went to see him, and found that he was from Georgia. We compared notes for awhile, and we thought that some of those NC Paffords moved further south into Georgia, and he and I were probably second or third cousins. (As you and I might be, too).

I am deeply grateful you wrote, and I hope all this helps you come closer to putting it all together. Next year sometime perhaps we might get together and meet.

Keep all this material; it is all copies.

Until we meet along the road, Cuz (?),

Sincerely,

Phil

In searching records at the Smyth County, Virginia (Marion) court house, I found the following that you might be interested in:
The will of John H. Pafford (married to Martha Ann Hutton) named the following children: W. T. Pafford (Wylie???) or William T., brother?? C.T. Pafford (Charles T., b. 11-20-1869,d. 4-8-1952, married to Lena H., b. 9-20-1877 d. 5-12-1974--both buried at Rose Lawn Cemetery in Marion, Va.--one daughter, Zella Anderson); Sarah Prator; Sophronia Flanigan (Vivian Jordan's great-grandmother); Mary Goodpasture (buried in Hutton cemetery at Centenary in Marion vicinity); and Berta Cormandy (several Cormandy's are buried in Hutton cemetery).

1870 census for Smyth County shows John H. & Martha Ann Pafford (37 & 32 yrs. old) with Sarah E, 13;Mary E,11;Safronia A.,9;James R.,6;Florence, 4;Charles T.,under 1.
1880 census shows them without Sarah and Safronia but with Wylie, 6; and Berta M.,3.
1860 census shows only children Sarah and Mary but also mother-in-law(?) Mary Ann Hutton, 50, and Eliza E. Hutton, 14, living with John & Sarah.

A book on Smyth County History and Traditions by Goodrich Wilson has a reference to a "J.R. Pafford" who was active as a Methodist layman and helped build and maintain the church at Nicks Creek. Also mentions "John Pafford" voting in 1833. The Historical Society in Marion Court House and Dominion Bank in Marion sells the book.

PAFFORD-CHILDRESS

William Lonzo Pafford, (12-4-1866 - 4-30-1936), was the son of Robert Collins Pafford, (1842-1923). Collins was John Pafford's son.

John Pafford, (1798-1851), and William Pafford, brothers, came from NC around 1819-1820. They married Cooper Meltons' daughters. John married Sarah and William married Morning Melton.

John was a Preacher. He donated the land for Flatwoods Methodist Church.

Collins fought in the Civil War and lost an eye, which caused him to wear a patch. He married Elmina Jane Cuff, (1848-1911). Their other children were Ray Pafford, a Preacher, who married Ranie Berry. Dofus never married and Dora, who married a Melton.

William Lonzo and Flora Childress Pafford

Lonzo Pafford married Flora Childress, (4-4-1873 - 7-11-1950), John Childress' daughter. Her brothers were Tot, George and Boyd Childress. Sisters were Dora Holland, Della Durdin and Mary Melton.

Lonzo and Flora bought a farm on Beaverdam Road between Eva and Flatwoods. The farm is now owned by Carnell Warrick, grandson.

Lonzo and Flora had three girls. Oldest was Verna Lillie, (8-15-1890 - 9-1-1961), who married Mack Warrick. Verna had son, Carnell. Carnell and his wife, Frances Inez have one son, Ronald Mack Warrick. He and his wife Marcie are missionaries in Brazil. They have three children, Jenae, Ronald Mack, Jr. and Phillip Andrew.

Lonzo and Flora's second daughter was Maud Mae, (8-12-1892 - 7-1-1971), who married Arlie Thomas Melton. They had one girl, Mabel Elizabeth Melton, (4-27-1915), who married William Guffry Pafford. Guffry was a great grandson of William Pafford, John's brother, mentioned earlier in this article.

Mabel and Guffry's first girl was born dead 5-21-1940. Their other daughter was Nola Jean Pafford, (6-6-44), who married Jimmy Dale Nunnery. Nola and Jimmy's first son was Russell Dale Nunnery, (8-27-68 - 8-30-68). Second son is Michael Darren Nunnery, (4-7-71).

Lonzo and Flora's youngest girl was Lela Eunus (1895-1970), who married Steve Utley. Lela and Steve had one son, Basil Utley, (4-13-1914 - 5-20-1984), who is buried at La Center, KY. He married Dorothy Jett. Lela and Steve had one daughter, Lillie Mae, (5-3-27), who married Robert C. Watson (Bob), (5-19-23 - 6-5-86), who was a preacher. He is buried in Hardin Cemetery.

Lillie Mae and Bob had three daughters. Oldest, Lola Mae (Peggy), (8-27-44), married Douglas King. Peggy and Douglas had five girls in this order: Anna Mae married Dennis Forrest and has one son, Dennis Forrest. Second girl Debbie who is now married to Billy Joe Bibbs. Her children are Kimberly Powers and Connie Bibbs. Third daughter if Tammy Carol, who married Tim Kelly and has one son, Justin Kelly. Tonya is the fourth girl and Misty is the youngest of five.

Second daughter of Lillie Mae and Bob is Jan Troutt, (6-16-50). She is now married to Thomas Troutt. She has one daughter, Dusty Lynn Britcliff.

Kathy Taylor, (11-30-56), is Lillie Mae and Bob's youngest. Her last husband, Rusty Taylor was killed in a car accident 10-7-86. He is buried at Hardin Cemetery. Kathy's two children are Robert (Bobby) L. Johnson and Crystal Johnson.

Most everyone is this article is buried at Flatwoods Methodist Church Cemetery unless otherwise stated.

DAVID B. PAFFORD

David B. Pafford, born Aug. 31, 1903, and Elsie O. Sanders, born Aug. 8, 1905, were married Mar. 26, 1922.

David B. was the son of Oscar Neal Pafford and Julia Totty Pafford. Elise O. was the daughter of William Stanford Sanders and Dicey Pafford Sanders.

Elsie and David and their four children: David Glynn (June 28, 1923 - Sept 6, 1978); Reba Imogene (born June 16, 1925); Dorothy B. (born Jul. 16, 1927); and William Oscar (born Jan. 13, 1931); settled in Eva, in the area now known as Nathan Bedford Forrest State Historic Area. David B. was the first caretaker of the park from the early 1930's until May, 1944. That year, the family packed up and moved to Cleveland, OH and returned to Camden in 1947.

David and Elsie, along with his brother and sister-in-law, Harold and Beatrice (Elsie's sister), owned and operated Pafford's Cafe. The cafe was located in the spot now occupied by Commerce Union Bank.

The Pafford's son, David Glynn served in the U. S. Army during World War II. He returned to Cleveland, and married Henlen Woloszyn. They had one son, David Glynn, Jr.

Their daugher, Reba, is married to Lanier Vick. They have two daughters, Beverly and Julie.

Daughter Dorothy B. was married to Eldred Pafford (now deceased). The couple had two children, James Lynn (deceased), and Donald Larry. She is now married to Tom Bordonaro.

The Paffords' youngest, William O. (Billy), is married to Mary Willadean Beasley, and they have one daughter, Malinda Faye.

HENRY C. PAFFORD

My father was H. B. "Blake" Pafford, the son of Tom Pafford. My father was born on Feb. 12, 1886 in Benton County. He married Rachel Ann Phifer in the year of 1913. My mother Rachel was the daughter of Fate Phifer. My mother was born in the year of 1892 in Benton County. I was born on Dec. 7, 1917. I have lived in Benton County all of my life. I attended grade school at Chestnut Hill School, Cherry Grove School, Farrar's School and graduated from the 8th grade at Eva School. I attended High School at Camden Central High School and graduated from there in 1936. I attended college one year at Cumberland University and one year at the University of Tennessee at Martin.

After attending college, I started to work in construction work building bridges and worked in construction work for fourty-four years until I retired in 1977.

On Feb. 8, 1941, I married Dorothy Elizabeth Goodman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Goodman.

I was called to the armed services in 1942 and served overseas for thirty-seven months in the South Pacific in the U.S. Army. I was honorably discharged from the Army in 1946. After returning home from the service, I built a home in Eva, TN where we lived until moving to our present home on Higland Heights Avenue in Camden in 1959.

We have three children: my daughter Cecile was born on Dec. 1, 1956, our son David Lee Pafford was born on May 16, 1959 and our youngest daughter Lee Ann was born on Dec. 23, 1961.

Our daughter Cecile married Kenny Weatherly and they live in the Camden area, our daughter Lee Ann married Steven Hite and they live in Bruceton, TN, our son David Lee lives here at my residence.

I was divorced in 1972, but despite this we still remain a very close family.

Some of my hobbies that I have enjoyed throughout the years are hunting, fishing, camping and collecting old antique glassware and stoneware.

All of our family members work in the Camden area. Our son David Lee Pafford is employed with the Camden Police Department and both of our daughters Cecile and Lee Ann are employed with the Oshkosh Manufacturing facility here in Camden.

WILLIAM O. PAFFORD

William O. Pafford, son of David B. and Elsie O. (Sanders) Pafford, was born Jan. 13, 1931.

William, better known as "Billy," or "Bill," was raised in the area of Eva that is now Nathan Beford Forrest State Historic Area. From 1950 to 1953, he served in the U. S. Air Force, stationed in Manchester, NH. After being discharged from the air force, he returned to camden, and has been employed as a printer and photographer with The Camden Chronicle, for over 30 years.

Billy enjoys photography, beekeeping, and reading about the Civil War. His great-grandfather, B. A. Totty, was a sergeant in the 5th Tennessee Infantry. He was wounded at Missionary Ridge, near Chattanooga, and was held as a prisoner of war in a Federal prison in Nashville.

On Jan. 8, 1955, Billy was married to Mary Willadean Beasley, daughter of Thomas Wesley and Clara Bell (Steward) Beasley.

After graduation from high school, Dean, as she is know, was employed by Kuhn's Variety Store in Camden. In 1967 she came to work in the advertising department of The Camden Chronicle. Dean's hobbies include reading and quilting.

The Paffords have one daugher, Malinda, born

Oct. 1, 1955. She is a 1973 graduate of Camden Central High School, and attended Jackson State Community College. Malina has also been employed at The Camden Chronicle since Oct. 1973. She is now advertising manager for the paper. Malina also enjoys photography, tracing the family's roots, and collecting antiques.

PAFFORD-MYERS

Charlie was the son of David and Delphia Herndon Pafford. He was born Oct. 7, 1875, and grew up with his four brothers: Jimmy, Oscar, Marshall, and Frank; two sisters: Almedia (Media) and Cecil. They spent their childhood in what is known as Happy Hollow in the 10th Civil District. David and Delphia owned extensive acreage, including Pilot Knob. David's funeral was held on top of Pilot Knob.

Mae came to Benton County with her father, James Lewis Myers, mother Linnie Newell Myers, and sister, Julia Myers from Dalington, IN.

Charlie and Mae were married Mar. 16, 1898. They lived in Benton County most of their lives. To them were born one son, Harley Newell, and five daughters: Ivy Marie, Nellie Faye, Sylvia Pearl, Ina Geraldine, and Linnie Delphia.

Pafford - Myers family

They and the children lived mainly in the 10th and 15th districts.

Charlie was called the proverbial "black sheep" of the family, but to his wife and children, he was a good husband and a wonderful father.

Charlie thought the grass was greener on the other side of the fence, and he moved his family many times. Mae said at one time they moved thirteen times in one year. The real purpose was that he sought to find the best future for his family.

During the year 1910 or 1911, they moved to Memphis, TN. This was the period of street cars. Many people left the county to drive street cars.

Shortly afterwards, plantation owners in AR came to Memphis looking for overseers for the cotton plantation. Charlie got restless again and moved with the family to Blackton, AR.

Charlie, Mae and children were there until the year 1913. The land had not been drained, and much water stood on the land where Marabias mosquitoes lived, causing people to contact Malaria fever. Harley was thrown from a horse and killed on Feb. 11, 1913. Six months later, Charlie developed a bad case of malaria fever and died on Sept. 1, 1913. Mae was left with the five girls.

Charlie was a member of a Masonic Lodge. Its purpose is to care for widows and orphans. He also had a cousin who, at that time, was the Grandmaster of the Lodge. This cousin, Mr. Blake Pafford, was also a member of the Tennessee Legislature. He came to help Mae during a time of dilemma.

Mr. Blake arranged for Mae and the girls to enter the Masonic Home in Nashville, TN, located on what is now called the Ben Allan Road. The Home was later bought by the State of TN, and is now the TN Department of Public Health.

Mr. Blake also secured passes for the train ride to the Masonic Home since there was no money to purchase them with. Mae and the girls could only bring a few belongings, leaving farm animals and household goods.

Fortunately, Mae and her girls could share the same room. The Home provided well, especially involving education. As the girls reached the age of 16 years, they were required to leave the Home. After three had left, Mae, with the two younger ones, came back to Benton County to live until her death on June 14, 1932. She is buried in Flatwoods Methodist Cemetery.

The girls married local boys and continued to live in Benton County. There were eleven grandchildren.

Since the family had never gone back to Blackton, AR, on Oct. 6, 1983, two of the sisters, some of the grandchildren, and one great grandchild went back, finding the grave sites of their father and brother.

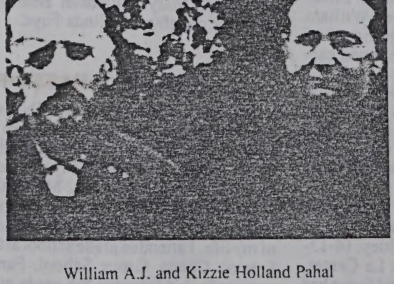
Only one of the girls and ten grandchildren are still living. Four live in Benton County. Three granddaughters, Ruth Dowdy, Clara Nell Morisette, and Naomi Bridges have served Benton County by holding public positions.

Delphia was not born when this picture was taken.

PAHAL-HOLLAND

William Andrew Jackson Pahal was born Dec. 20, 1851 and died Dec. 20, 1915 in Benton County, TN. He was the son of Andrew Pahal born about 1800 in NC and Mary Ramer Pahal born about 1806 in NC.

William A. J. Pahal married Kizzie Holland on Feb. 28, 1872 in Benton County, TN. Kizzie Holland Pahal born Dec. 20, 1851 in Benton County, TN died Jul. 30, 1940 at the home of her son, James E. "Jim" Pahal in Ashley County, AR. She was the daughter of William and Louiza Brewer Holland.



William A.J. and Kizzie Holland Pahal

To the union of William A. J. and Kizzie Pahal was born five children: 1) Marion Ellis born Dec. 7, 1872 died Nov. 6, 1922. He married first Cora C. Berry, daughter of William L. and Brazora "Brazzie" Melton Berry. He married second Arvie C. Pafford. 2) Frances E. born Jan. 13, 1874 died Feb. 10, 1879, buried in Ramble Creek Cemetery, Benton County, TN. 3) Infant son born and died Feb. 7, 1875, buried in Ramble C Cemetery, Benton County, TN. 4) James E born Feb. 4, 1876 in Benton County, TN Nov. 6, 1947 in Ashley County, AR married Victoria Holland, daughter of Pridgen H. Margaret E. Berry Holland. 5) Etheridge Apr. 11, 1887 in Benton County, TN, died Ju 1944 in Ashley County, AR, married Myrtle Smith Holland on Aug. 25, 1909 in A County, AR. Myrtle Pearl was born Sept 1891 in Benton County, TN, the daught Herman D. and Icy Dora Holland Smith.

William A. J. was a farmer.

EXPLANATION: The first Ancestor Chart will be Chart No. 1. Person No. 1 on this Chart is the same as No. 1 on Chart No. 1. Persons No. 16 - No. 31 will be continued on Charts No. 2 - No. 17. Their names will appear twice: once as No. 16 - No. 31 on the Chart they were continued from and then again as No. 1 on the Chart they are continued to. The 'Compiler' is the person who fills out the Chart. He may be you or another person such as a professional genealogist. The person 'For Whom Compiled' is the one who retains ownership of the Chart. He will usually be person No. 1 or a relative of person No. 1. This Chart should be used in conjunction with the Family Group Record whereon more detailed family information and sources are given.

INSTRUCTIONS: Print or Type. Give all names in full: Given name, Middle name, SURNAME. Use a woman's Maiden name as her SURNAME. Capitalize all SURNAMES. Females will always be odd numbered. Record dates: Day, Month, Year. Use standard abbreviations for months. If the Christening date is used instead of the Birth date write (CHR) after the date. If a man has been married more than once, place the number of the wife shown on this Chart in parentheses before the date of their marriage: (2) 17 Sep 1856. Record Place: Town, County, State or Country. Do not abbreviate the town's name. If there is no town, write Co. after the county's name.

OBITUARY — MRS. SARAH A. PAFFORD

Mrs. Sarah A. Pafford, (nee Keys) died at the home of her daughter Mrs. F. F. Prater near Attoway on December 7, 1925 at the age of 72 years, 9 months, and 16 days. She was united in marriage to John H. Pafford June 1, 1871 and became the mother of fourteen children, seven of whom survive her. Her husband departed this life on March 8, 1923.

Her surviving children are Mrs. F. F. Prater, Mrs. Charles Medley, and Messers. G. D. and L. O. Pafford of Marion; Mr.. R. L. Pafford, Wytheville, Va.; Mr.. E. N. Pafford, Knoxville, Tenn.; and Mrs. M. T. Moody, Fredericksburg, Va.

One sister, Mrs. E. E. Cole, Damascus, Va.; and three brothers, Mr.. John L. Keys, Marion, Va.; Mr. B. F. Keys, Rural Retreat, Va.; and J. H. Keys, Sugar Grove, also survive her besides quite a number of grandchildren.

The deceased accepted Christ as her Savior and united with the Lutheran Church in 1871, and continued in fellowship with the same until death. She was held in high esteem by her neighbors.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Attoway Lutheran Church, conducted by Rev.. E. H. Copenhaver, assisted by Rev. Painter of the Methodist church.

The interment was beside her husband in the Hutton Cemetery.

(This notice appeared in the Marion, Va. newspaper; beside her husband's grave marker is a stone marking what is believed to be her husband's father's grave which reads: John H. Pafford, Born April 20, 1832, Died January 6, 1913.)

The following appeared in an Atlanta, Georgia, newspaper:

> The old French word Paffard denoted a large oval or quadrangular shield carried by medieval crossbowmen. The shield could be rested on the ground or leaned against a bush and provided some protection against enemy arrows.
> As a surname it would have been given to a person who made pafards and added to his single given name when more exact identification was needed.
> Willelm Paffard lived in London in the period 1100-1130.
> William Pafford was head of a family in Stokes County, North Carolina, in 1790.
> The spelling Pafferd has also been noted.

PAFFORD COAT OF ARMS

Information available indicates that in 1972 there were less than 450 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Pafford name. The U. S. Census Bureau in 1970 estimated that there were 3.1 persons per household, which means that fewer than 1395 people in the U. S. bear the Pafford name. In comparison, some of the common family names are shared by over two million people.

Translation and Interpretation

The Pafford Coat of Arms is white with a gold rose badge of England, and a upper left corner of red bearing a white rose, symbolic of England.

There is some disagreement as to when he arrived in what is now Benton Co, but my husbands side of the Pafford clan is sure the year was 1818 or 1819 as the oldest child is reported to hve been born in this County. Those who have seen the family Bible, now destroyed, assure us of this being a fact. Also, John was a Methodist minister and is recorded in the Memphis Conference as having organized Flatwoods Methodist Church in 1824. He lead what was called the "Methodist Society" prayer group until this Church was organized.

ELMER EULAS PAFFORD and Mary D. Pafford had the following

CHILDREN:

GLENN CHARLES ... M. Virginia Simpson b.5-29-1926 on Aug 11,1945

Fred Gillespie b 11-26-1924 m. Anna Bernice (b.12-12-270 on Nov. 26, 1955
Eva Jean b 4-12-1930 m Dennis E. Dawson on Nov. 10, 1951 _

GLENN CHARLES PAFFORD and Virginia Simpson Pafford were married Aug 11, 1945 at Henry, N.C. just outside Raléigh N.C.

CHILDREN:

Glenda Lou is married to the Rev. Steve Mosley, minister of a Cumberland Presbyterian Church and they live in Milan, Tn. Children; Michael, Shane, and Mary Ann. Glenda was born Nov. 14, 1949

Donald Ray is married to the former Janice Marie Ward of Dyer, Tn. They live in Arlington, Tn, (just outside Memphis) and have two daughters, Amanda and Jennifer. Donald was born May 28, 1951.

The story concerning the family and decendants of John Pafford is as follows: John and a brother William, came to this territory around 1818-1819 with their wives, Sarah and Mourning Melton, daughters of Cooper and Phoebe Melton. The Melton family could have been in DeKalb Co., Tn. when the marriages took place, as a grandson implies in his Civil War Questionaire. the first John was a Methodist Minister and also farmed as well as traded in land buying and selling. Records of the Memphis Conference of the Methodist Church reports that John organized the Flatwood Methodist Church in 1824 and served as the pastor for many years. John also served as a Majestrate for the Quarterly Court.

I have not included William Pafford and his decendants but have a good bit of that informationn also and will be more than happy to share it with anyone who is interest ask for!

I am so very interested in PROVING that John and William are really the sons of the William Pafford who served as drummer boy in the Rev. War, from Stokes Co., N.C. Oral family history states this is a fact but definate proof is needed for any Pafford lady to be able to join the D A R from this lineage. My grandaughters can , of course, use my lineages as I did for this purpose. However, I would love for all Pafford girls to be able to do the same. It is a challenge.

If I have been of any help to any one, I am so grateful for the opportunity to do so and will appreciate any information passed back my way.

Hello,

Just saw your 1998 querie on PAFFORD-HUTTON.

Samuel Pafford to John H. Pafford, Sr. and Sarah Ann Thompson through James M. Pafford to Mary Margaret Pafford and William Porter James to Micah D. James and Sarah Bartee to Oneita James and Marion Oleson to me.

Would welcome any information on Paffords and/or Huttons.

Bob Oleson

Dear Bob: So pleased to hear from you. These Paffords are quite a problem. Perhaps we can help each other, sure hope!

Without dates after your names, it is rather hard to be sure we are one the same track. So here is my line:
(With a 1998 query, who knows what I put into it, so I'll probably be repeating)

My grandmother, Safronia Adeline Pafford b 1861 Marion twnsp., Smythe, VA. m Emory Greever Flanagan.
She was dau/John Henry Pafford, Jr. b ca1832 SmytheCo. VA
John, Jr. m Martha Ann Hutton 1856 in Smythe Co., Va
John, Sr. b 1800 perhaps Stokes Co., NC
John, Sr. m Sarah Ann Keys

I'm sure you must know that there is a William Pafford who was a Rev. War soldier. The preponderence of evidence "seems to show" that my bunch came from William. But to date, and I've been looking quite a while for some infor on William, nothing definate has turned up to 'prove' what I think!

If you have the TN Paffords records, the oldest ones all say they were b in NC.

Anxious to hear more of your family with specifics. Then I'll be able to check my miscellaneous file and see if I can find anything on your line. I'm open to any correction or addition as long as documentation is offered. I've been lucky enough to have contacted several siblings in VA and TN years ago and got there in put, so I believe that I'm on fairly firm ground. Do Let Me Know:):)

I have been trying to put my records on the computer but medical problems have interfered so I'm slow at finding what I want etc., but I try. Vivian Jordan.

My John H. Pafford was born 1854 to James M.and Nancy (Shupe) He was married to Frances A. Nelson b. 1851 . Her parents were John Tevis Nelson and Catherine Williams. They were all born in Smyth County. It took me awhile to figure out which one was my John H. Pafford as there were quite a few. James M. and William T. Pafford were brothers - they were the sons of Jonathon (John?) Pafford and Sarah A. Thompson. I have alot of info and census records to 1920 that was sent to me from someone who has done alot of research on the Paffords. Hope that this helps the confusion.

Wow, our dates are so different. Perhaps they aren't the same folks. I got my information from the 1850 Smyth county, VA census. John Pafford age 50 b NC, Sarah Ann age 45 b VA, John 17 b VA, Robert 15 b VA, Elizabeth E. 8 b VA, Cynthia 3 b VA, and infant b VA. In the 1853-1861 Smyth Co VA Marriages index, I found reference to John Pafford marrying Martha A. Hutton in 1856. and Robert Pafford marrying Jane "Pafford" in 1857. The dates seem to work out as far as marriage ages and all. What information do you have and do you remember where you got it? Interesting.

Glenda Sue, glad to hear that you'll be at the Pafford Reunion in Willacoochee GA over Labor Day Weekend! Ray and I will park our 5th wheel trailer in the far corner of the churchyard. We'll arrive on Saturday, August 21, 2004 America Online: YHIII

Thurs, to pressure wash the buildings, do cemetery cleanup, etc.

The nearest motels to Willacoochee are in Douglas (18 miles north) and Tifton (30 miles west). Springhead UMC is 6 miles south of Willacoochee, in the boonies.

This old church (originally built in the 1840s, rebuilt in 1850) now has AC, running water, flush toilets, a fellowship hall with kitchen, and covered picnic area --- I do remember the previous "accomodations". (Just use your imagination!) The weather will be in the 90s, with bright glaring sun, most likely. Gnats will be the bothersome insects.

The worship service is the highlight of Reunion, as we hear the Word read and preached, and sing the same old hymns our forefathers sang, in the very same building! Many of them are buried in the cemetery behind the church.

After church, dinner will be spread on the high tables. Some people bring folding chairs, but many of us walk/stand around eating and visiting at the same time. The fellowship hall will be open; 8 or 9 tables in there. Plates and napkins, plastic flatware, cups, ice, and tea will be provided.

The Sat fish fry is a new event. We will begin gathering at 1 PM, and will eat about 4 PM.. No drinks will be provided, though everything else will be furnished.

We are trying to stimulate an interest in the Pafford family genealogy, and some of us will be in the fellowship hall on Sat afternoon, chatting and sharing info. We have electricity but no phone. Several people are trying to borrow a printer for our use. . . Copy paper will be available. Bring your info!

I'll bring my books:
.... Survey of Cemeteries / Cook County Georgia..... . . .
.Lowndes Co GA Probate Records /July 1847-Jan 1852. Charles Corbett transcribed this from The Surviving Docket. These are records that remained after a fire in Valdosta. At that time Lowndes Co was quite large, including the southwest portion of present-day Atkinson Co..... . . materials by the Chicora Foundation (Columbia SC), from the Cemetery Preservation Workshop we attended in Woodbine ("Don't use anything on a tombstone that you would not use on your face!") And other extremely valuable and serious info about protecting our heritage!
.... .Iconography of Death: a book by our workshop leader on common tombstone symbolism used in the southeastern U S, 17002-1900s..... . . . etc!
Well. I found it impossible to give "just a little" information, in this case!

I hope many of you can come. Please do! I'd love to know, so write me, and we'll be expecting you!

My Pafford line is from Smyth County Virginia. James M. Pafford (gggrandfather) married Nancy Shupe - John H. Pafford born - 1854? married Frances A. Nelson (Daughter of Tevis Nelson)my ggrandparents -
My grandfather Worley Heath Pafford born about 1882 - died falling off a ladder at the Cudahy Plant in Sioux City Iowa in 1927 - Muncie Pafford from Sugar Grove Virginia (Worley's youngest brother) rode a train to get the 5 children, (Heath, Hazel, Mable, Theodore (my father born 1919 in Whiting Iowa) and Wanda the baby - to Sioux City and took them back to Virginia until their mother(Zola Boyer Pafford) who had deserted them and Worley was found and brought them back to Omaha, Nebraska...The Pafford's I am related to also lived at 7 Mile Ford in Virginia. My father Theodore died in 1956 at the age of 36 and he was only 7 when Worley died and my info is from my mom and my dad didn't remember alot being so young. There were alot of articles of these Pafford children in Sioux City as they were classified as orphans in the newspaper up in Sioux City. Worley is buried in the Potter's field in Sioux City as they could not find any relatives nearby or any info at the time of his death - He was raising the children on his own with help from neighbors. If any of this sounds like it might be from your Pafford line - I would love to hear from you. James M. Pafford has his father's name listed as Jos. Pafford originally from North Carolina. Wife was Mary Attwood .

Dear Dorothy:

How very nice to hear from you again and know that you are still interested in the Paffords. So many things interfere with our interests but then that's life, I guess.

I'm trying to plow through the pile of papers that have accumulated on my desks, it is pitiful how far behind I am on anything that is personel.

We have just moved into our new Library facilities, after having to close for three weeks, and believe me, this old gal is just now beginning to feel that I might make it!! We have been open for a week, and that is tedious, but the working conditions are sooo much better now....not to mention the researching conditions. I plan to retire from Clayton in '89, so I'm glad that I can say that I did work in both places.

I just wanted to tell you that I have received your letter of the 22 Sep, '88 and will try to obsorb and assimulate in the near future.

Also on the stack of papers on my desk was a letter from a Judy Pafford Quinn. She sent some papers, done by a Norma June Pafford Elliott Anderson. Have you corresponded with Mrs. Anderson? I got a chance to photocopy and sent it onto Phil Pafford. I haven't really looked at it good. I may be wrong but it appears to be some of the records that you sent to me in this last letter...but then again, I haven't really compared the two.

I promise to get back to you as soon as possible. I hope that you can get to Houston and come see our new Library.

Sincerely,

P.S. I am going to try to look at some NC film on my lunch hour and double check some of these deeds that you have referred to.

Dearest Vivian,

Greetings from Fort Worth! After a period of two months, you may believe that I am beginning my second 5-year plan for not answering your letters.

Shortly after our original correspondence, we began having some traumatic occurrences in my husband's family. I just set my research aside except for occasional workshops or visits to the National Archives Branch or a trip to the library. My husband is the oldest child in what was once a close-knit family. He has always been a devoted son to his parents. His father passed on about two years ago at age 91 years and his mother yet lives at present age of 92 years. She is a victim of a mental disorder and doesn't know her own name. Her condition was gradual and helped to contribute to some of the problems. After many terrible happenings, my husband is now estranged from all of his family except for one sister. I have witnessed God's admonition that the love of money is the root of all evil. I thought for several years that my husband would suffer a nervous collapse, but he is recovering nicely at this time since he has turned his mind to new things.

In May of this year, we bought a 300 acre rench about 80 miles toward Wichita Falls in Jack County. It is a beautiful area filled with large oak trees. We are building a camp house in the woods. My husband did speculative building for many years; but, we have been in the lumber business for the past 25 years. He stays open five days a week and that does not give us much time for work on the cabin. We make two trips up there a week - one on Tuesday or Wednesday after closing. He works until dark and returns home the same evening. Then we go up on Fridays after work and camp out over night and work on Saturdays. We usually return home late Saturday night and he rests on Sunday while I attend church services. We lack hanging one more door and the cabin will finally be "closed-in." We spent last Sunday night up there and Wichita Falls was under a tornado alert for awhile. You cannot imagine how loud that wind sounds without doors on the house!

I also have rent property to care for and a large yard here at home which I maintain (by myself this year!) and try to deep watered-watered-watered. I don't get over it until it is time to start again. This summer has been a difficult one - I just hope I can survive for a while longer. So far, we have two registered quarter horses - a mare named Silkwood and her young mare colt who was born April 2 named Cher Amis. Believe me those are two spoiled horses! So much for all my excuses --

Now for the Paffords. In answer to your most recent letter, yes, I know about Daniel Pafford of North Carolina. Ray has a good bit of info on Daniel in his books. He had contact with a descendant, Walter Ivan Hamlin who was a descendent of Gideon Pafford, son of Daniel. Mrs. Paul O. Bruce's husband is a descendant of Daniel. June Nelms made contact with her through the North Carolina Genealogical Society. Information from her agrees with Ray's books. She said in her letter dated 2 April 1982 that "her husband's ancestor was born 15 July 1813 in North Carolina of Scottish parents. He was an only child and it is thought that he was orphaned early since he came to Indiana in 1822 with a family by the name of Melvin and was a bound boy to them until he was 17." I have some problem with the Scottish parents since I believe that the Paffords were English. You did not mention the type of record that your correspondent

She said that the two were separated by only one household so were probably related. Thomas was listed as 45 years or over and had one male child under 10, 2 females under 10, and 2 females 10-15, and a wife 45 yrs or over. This could be Thomas who married a woman in America with children. I can see how Thomas might have been Randolph's father but not James. If James was under 10 years when he came to America in 1810 and Randolph was born ca 1808 or 1809, James would have been a very young father. James shows to be a young married man with no children in 1820 and John Williams says James first child was born in 1825. My census records bear this out. John Williams did not include info about James Pafford's other children because I have found much in the Census records about them.

I am sending you a pedigree chart compiled by a Walter J. Carmoney, Jr.,M.D. which he sent to Ray in 1971 while he was working in Wichita Falls, Tx. I have no idea where he is now located. You might locate him through the American Medical Association. He is descended from John Sr.'s daughter, Elizabeth Louisa Pafford. He includes some data which you did not have on your pedigree chart. I have also located another close kinsman of your John Pafford. He is descended from James Robert Pafford and John Pafford, Sr.

I am including some census records I have on your family but I have been unable to place James Robert in his proper place.

I am also sending various pieces of data which may be of help to you. One is titled, "Early Paffords in America with Unknown Parents." I have collected most of these during my research. I am trying to tie Jesse to some of them, but so far, no luck. See what you can do with them. I wish you would try to check on the Rachel who married Christian Smith, Jr. and lived in Harris Co.,Tx. Ray corresponded with a Mavoureen (Polly Pruett (Mrs. Lawrence Wheeler Taylor) 8003 Arletta Dr., Houston, Tx 77017. (telephone 645-5665). This was in August of 1970. I have no idea if she is still alive or if she still lives at the same address. Since they were in Texas before 1836, The State Archives might have a lot of data on them. My cousin received 20 pages about her ancestors.

She said that the two were separated by only one household so were probably related. Thomas was listed as 45 years or over and had one male child under 10, 2 females under 10, and 2 females 10-15, and a wife 45 yrs or over. This could be Thomas who married a woman in America with children. I can see how Thomas might have been Randolph's father but not James. If James was under 10 years when he came to America in 1810 and Randolph was born ca 1808 or 1809, James would have been a very young father. James above to be a young married man with no children in 1820 and John Williams says James first child was born in 1825. My census records bear this out. located. The news that Daniel was the son of Betsy is new to me. I have done some research for Daniel's record for I knew there must be one. I have found some records concerning Pafford orphans in the Court Minutes. The record should reveal who took charge of Daniel. If you have additional information, I would love to have it. Daniel is the beginning of six major lines of Paffords which are covered in Ray's books. Incidently, I am not publishing a book. Where did you obtain that information? If your friend has access to the North Carolina Archives, perhaps she could go through some of the old records of the various N. C. counties where the early Paffords were located. I have the Guide To Research Materials in the North Carolina State Archives, Section B: County Records. I plan to visit our Morman library hereand see if they might order those films for me. My next project - after your letter! Also, I am including some data on three deeds of property owned by the early Paffords which I understand are located in the N.C. State Archives. Do you suppose your correspondent could obtain those for me. I will gladly pay the cost. I wrote for them but no luck. Oh, by the way, in what county is Snow Creek located?

Another thing, June Nelms says she thinks the father of her John and William Pafford who went to Benton County, Tenn. had a father named James William Pafford who died in Nash County, N.C. and that both John and William were born there. John and William married Melton sisters who were also from Nash County, N.C.

Now to your letter dated 6 October 1983, if you still retain a copy in your files. I located the book, Early Southwest Virginia Families by Elizabeth Kelly Allison, 1960 and copied most of it. The Paffords in this book are the family of Jesse Pafford. Two of Jesse's sons married into the Kelly family. Next, the graves located in Burnet Co., Tx., Smithwick Cemetery outside Marble Falls belong to the family of June Nelms. Lewis Pafford was the 12th child of John Pafford of Benton Co., Tenn. He married Susan Paralee Madden 26 May 1856. Ray has a vast amount of info on Lewis' descendants but he did not have them back to Lewis. He stopped with Albert Lewis Pafford. Many live in San Saba, Tx and the family has a reunion the third Sunday in August in Lampasas each year. You also mentioned Jonathan K. T. Smith who has done research on the Benton Co., Tenn. Paffords. I tried to order his book but no luck. I believe that he resides in Nashville and has access to the Tenn. state archives. June Nelms sent me some of his research. Yes, I have a copy of the write-up from The Genealogists' Mag. v. 16 #3 1969. Elva Stevens sent it to me. She is a descendant of the Randolph Pafford who claimed land near Del Rio, Tx. She stated in her last letter that John Williams Pafford, author of A Pafford Line in Review died 1 February 1988. His daughter wrote to Elva and sent some of his books to her. He seemed like such a sweet gentleman. I did have a bit of a problem with some of his reasoning in his book. He corresponded with Uncle Ray for many years.

You mentioned this Randolph who settled in Texas. Elva claims that he was the son of James Pafford who came from England ca 1810 with his father Thomas Pafford but I cannot see the connection. John William Pafford said her Randolph was not the son of James and grandson of Thomas. He claims them as his ancestors. I located a Thomas in Stokes Co., N.C. in 1810 which could have been this Thomas - had one male under 10 years. Another correspondent located a Thomas and a James in Warren Co., Tenn in U.S. Census in 1820 which could be these two. The Thomas is not included in the index and I missed him but did find the James.

Dear Dorothy:

It has been some years, 1983, since last we corresponded!

Through these years I'v had several Pafford queries, but nothing of really much consequence, so far as adding to the already known information. But the other day, a woman wrote that she had heard of someone in Texas, a Ray or Roy Pafford who was writing a book. That rang a bell and I began going over the old correspondence and found your letter.

Did you ever do anything with your in law, Ray's records?? That is, have you put it into book form, I would be pleased to purchase a copy, if you have. Can't think that I would miss an addthat told of a book coming out, but anything is possible.

I hope that we can pick up again and help each other. A correspondent has written that in Raleigh,NC she had found a reference, no date(!), that Daniel Pafford, son of Betsy Pafford was on Snow Creek. unquote. I haven't run into a Daniel, have you?? Snow Creek is where, William, Rev. War, and the Youngs and Mabes were, so where does Daniel fit?

Maybe Ray Paffords notes will tell us. I would appreciate any record that might obtain to the above.

Sure hope that this is your current address and that you are still interested in Paffords.

Most Sincerely,

Mrs. Vivian M. Jordan

Dear Dorothy:

How nice to find someone else working on the Paffords!! I haven't done any research on them in some time but that does not mean that I have forgotten them. That name you just do not see in every index...right?

Have you ever been in Clayton Library here in Houston? I have been on the staff for 8 or 9 years now. Anyone coming into the library that even whispers the name Pafford I jump.

I know that there was a large land grant in south Texas given to a Pafford. When I traced him back he was from Tenn.

The Paffords that I have contacted via the telephone book in Houston have really not cared too much about the family. I did find one young man that put me onto the Georgia Pafford man that had written those two little books. I bought them and put them in the Library.

As I write this letter I'm checking my files so excuse the disjointedness.

I have found a Jessee (sic) Pafford in Early Southwest Virginia Families by Elizabeth Kelly Allison, 1960. In Chapter 5 there is a mention of Jessee Pafford being on the building committee in 1857 to build a church, Kelly's Chapel. If you are not familiar with this book, I will send you a copy of this reference.

Also in Burnet Co.,TX , Smithwick Cemetery outside of Marble Falls is listed 5 Pafford graves. The two oldest are Lewis and Susan Pafford b 1837. In a Benton Co., Tenn. book by Jonathan K. T. Smith there is a good article on Cowell's Chapel with a listing of burials in which there is a Jessie Pafford son of Tom...no marker. Have you seen this? Also the John and Sarah Pafford Family Bible.is listed John b 1798.

This Jonathan K. T. Smith has done a lot on Benton Co.,Tenn. The Paffords in Tenn. seem to have married into the Holland, and Vick families. I found Coley which is in my line, Hutton another family name. They all traveled in groups and intermarried.

I am enclosing a 5 generation chart. I go on vacation next week so don't be surprised if I don't answer for awhile. Once again...I am so glad to find a fellow researcher!!!

Do you have the write up from The Genealogists Mag. v 16 #3 1969?

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

June Nelms of Yukon, Oklahoma sent me a copy of your Pafford query which appeared in Family Puzzlers March 12, 1981. She also sent a copy of your letter to her dated 7 February 1982.

I, too, am doing research on the Pafford family. My husband's mother is Vera Pafford Alread. She is the great granddaughter of Jesse Pafford who was born in N. Carolina circa 1810. He was listed in the 1860 U. S. Census as living in Washington Co., Va. The family came to Texas in 1872 and settled in Collin County, Texas.

Vera's brother, Ray Pafford - now deceased, has done research on the Pafford family for at least 40 years. After he died about three years ago, I copied his books on the Pafford family and am endeavoring to continue his research. He had data on 850 Paffords in America and I have added to that number. He apparently labored with the idea that most of the Paffords who came to America were related and I am beginning to believe that theory also. There were so few in the beginning and most were born in North Carolina.

I believe our Paffords are very closely related. As you know, Wythe and Washington Counties were parent counties of Smyth County. I have not found Jessee in any U.S. Census Index but I am learning that they are full of errors. I just knew where he was located and looked in order to find him. I had to search the 1860 Census household by household to locate him. He was 50 years old in 1860 and census says born in N.C. His wife apparently died and he left Va. in 1867, traveled through Missouri to visit a son and was headed toward Iowa where the family thinks he married again and had one daughter. As you can see, I have my work cut out for me in order to document all this.

I have data complete on Jesse Pafford's line and would love to exchange family information with you because I do believe we are closely related - your great grandfather John and Jessee could well have been brothers.

I, too, have found more data on this William Pafford of Stokes Co., N.C. than any other Pafford - probably because he was a Revolutionary War Vet.

I also have the data on the Georgia Paffords. I have this complete line and the two books published by John Williams Pafford of Georgia.

I, too, am doing research on the Pafford family. My husband's mother is Vera Pafford Allred. She is the great granddaughter of Jesse Pafford who was born in N. Carolina circa 1810. He was listed in the 1850 U. S. Census as living in Washington Co., Va. The family came to Texas in 1872 and settled in Collin County, Texas.

Vera's brother, Ray Pafford - now deceased,-has done research on the Pafford family for at least 50 years. Alton he died about three years ago, I copied his books on the Pafford family and am endeavoring to consolidate his research. He had data on 850 Paffords in America and I have added to that number. He apparently labored with the idea that most of the Paffords who came to America were related and I am beginning to believe that theory also. There were so few in the beginning and most were born in North Carolina.

I also have the data on the Georgia Paffords. I have this complete line and the two books published by John Williams Pafford of Georgia.

I picked up data on your Pafford family in the 1850 and 1860 U. S. Census of Va. I also have information on other Paffords in the area as well as a family tree of your great grandfather's sister, Elizabeth Louisa Pafford who married Samuel Cress, Jr.

Do you know anything about the Samuel Pafford listed in the 1850 U. S. Census in Tazewell Co.p.312. He was 80 years old and b. in N. C. He was living with And. Martin, 51 yr. and wife Temple. There was also a Mary Pafford in 1850 Census in Smyth Co., p. 212, age 71 years, b. Va and living with Joshua Hubbs, 55 yrs. and wife, Mary. This Mary Pafford was living fairly close to John Pafford and wife Sarah Ann listed on page 217.

I would love to correspond with you and exchange Pafford data as we continue our research.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

Glad to hear from you; I thoroughly enjoy genealogy and exchanging data. However, I cannot help you a great deal with the PAFFORD line, but will gladly share the bit of information that I have.

My interest in WILLIAM PAFFORD Came about when I found that he testified when my husband's ancestor, WILLIAM YOUNG, applied for a pension as a Rev. soldier. Then at the time of PAFFORD'S application for a pension he and his wife, BETSY age 34, both unable to work, are living in the house and family of WILLIAM YOUNG. Later he states that he has been unable to support himself or wife and they are dependent upon neighbors; which probably explains his presence in the Young home.

I applied for the pension papers and received a copy of a letter the Department had mailed on DECEMBER 14, 1931 to:
MRS. C. M. WHITT, BOX 1795, WILLIAMSON, W. VA. You might be able to find someone still there in Williamson if you can find some means of doing so.

From notes: 15 March 1826 he is shown 59 years old, but 13 Sept 1826 when making his claim he says he is 61 or thereabout. WILLIAM PAFFORD was a drummer in the army. When making this claim he says that he and Betsy have no children. However, at Raleigh Archives I found a bit of information: NO DATE: DANIEL PAFFORD, SON OF BETSY PAFFORD, ON SNOW CREEK. SNOW CREEK IN STOKES COUNTY WAS WHERE THESE YOUNGS AND PAFFORDS LIVE. I did not record the information, if there were any, with this note. Perhaps Daniel passed away before the pension application was made. ????? No record of Betsy's death.

WM. PAFFORD married 3 March 1839 HANEY (MABE) BULLINS. The record shows one daughter: POLITHA PAFFORD md ANDREW J. DUGGINS 30 SEPT 1855
Wm. Pafford died in 1848. HANEY died April 8, 1864.

LYLE L. MABE, 27 N. SADLIER DRIVE, INDIANAPOLOS, IND 46219 is interested in the MABE-PAFFORD line. He had an inquiry in the N. C. Genealogical Society Journal and I just talked with one of his relatives to see if she had more information on Haney Mabe. Their interest lies in the record that shows: HIRAM MABE, 8 years of age, placed with WILLIAM PAFFORD in 1807. So, you and Mr. Mabe might just come up with some information beneficial to both of you.

I am not working on the Pafford line; I do have a Mabe line so have discussed Haney, but find no one knows who her parents were. There are a number of us in this area into genealogy and we watch out for each other's interests. I will keep your letter and if I find anything new I will let you know.

Pafford's!

Mrs. June Nelms
P.O. Box 71
Yukon, OK. 73099

Dear Mrs. Nelms:

I'm most interested in the Pafford family. My grandmother
b 1861 b 1833
was Safronia Adeline Pafford, dau of John H. Pafford and Martha Ann Hutton. All three b in Smythe Co., Va. John H. father, John, was born somewhere in N. C. ca. 1800.
My records are very sketchy on the Paffords....you seldom even see the name! I know that there is a branch in Ga. and if you are from that branch, perhaps I could put you in touch with a fine old gentleman, in Ga. that has written a book on his Paffords. These are not mine, I'm sure.
Mine came from North Carolina, and I believe that a branch went to Tenn. and a branch to Va. The Tenn. bunch all say that they are b in N. C. and the Va. day the same. But the one Pafford, found in N. C. leaves no children, or so he says in his pension.
I will be glad to exchange information and give you anything that I have. Hope that we can connect and be of mutual benefit to each other.

Dear Mrs. Nelms:

I'm most interested in the Pafford family. My grandmother b 1861 b 1833 was Safronia Adeline Pafford,/dau of John H. Pafford/and Martha Ann Hutton. All three b in Smythe Co., Va. John H. father, John, was born somewhere in N. C. ca. 1800.

My records are very sketchy on the Paffords....you seldom even see the name! I know that there is a branch in Ga. and if you are from that branch, perhaps I could put you in touch with a fine old gentleman, in Ga. that has written a book on his Paffords. These are not mine, I'm sure.

Mine came from North Carolina, and I believe that a branch went to Tenn. and a branch to Va. The Tenn. bunch all say that they are b in N. C. and the Va. day the same. But the one Pafford, found in N. C. leaves no children, or so he says in his pension.

I will be glad to exchange information and give you anything that I have. Hope that we can connect and be of mutual benefit to each other.

Sincerely,

Dear Vivian Jordan -

I was most pleased to have your letter re: Pafford, my mother's people, of Benton County, Tennessee, probably prior to that Nash County, North Carolina.

But I regret that what I know of the Paffords before Tennessee is rather indefinite. Most of the information I have is from Cousins in Tennessee Quote" I have no documentary proof as to who the original Paffords, John and William were descended from. Uncle Collins Pafford, son of John, gave as his grandfather a "James" Pafford of Nash County, N.C. A Richard Carlton Fulcher, P.O. Box 21, Brentwood Texas in a published book gives him as a William Pafford who was a drummer boy in the Revolutionary War. One branch of the Benton Co. family said he was James Pafford, came into (Benton Co. early before it was a county) and is buried in the Flatwoods Area.

So you see, I too have far to go on my Paffords genealogy.

Your information was interesting to me as most people from England came to Virginia or one of the seaboard states first.

The John Paffords of Benton County was a pioneer preacher who founded Flatwoods Methodist Church around 1830.

I hope this isn't too confusing. I hope to do more work on the N.C. Paffords soon. As trying to do 14 families and should have started sooner, we all wait until it's too late to ask our parents and grandparents. However, I am pleased to see many young people beginning on their genealogy. At 65, I wonder if I can accomplish and complete all I hope to do.

Dear Dr. Pafford:

My sister-in-law, Mrs. Enoch P. Jordan (Alida) sent me your address that she had obtained from her friends, Al and Ginnie Parsons! How'd that for a parlay? This is all because I had read that you had 2 scrapbooks at the West Georgia Library. When I wrote to Alida to see if your information might give some light on my North Carolina Paffords, she found that the Library was closed for the Holidays.

I have the little book that your Uncle, John Williams Pafford, wrote.. A Pafford Line in Review. Unfortunately the Tenn./Ga. Paffords are not my direct line. I have no doubt but what they are connected in some way for the Tenn. Paffords...the older ones...all say on the Census records that they were born in North Carolina.

My Grandmother was a Pafford, born in Wythe Co., Va. My last known ancestor, John Pafford who died in Wythe Co. says that he is born in North Carolinacca. 1800.

If you have any information on the Tenn. Paffords or know of anyone tracing the Paffords...it is such an unusual name, I very seldom see it in all my research...I would appreciate your help.

I enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Thank you for your reply to my query on the Pafford name. Also I do appreciate the update of Mr. J.H.P.Paffo[illegible]d's address. I hope to correspond with him in the near future.

About the middle of April, I plan to take my vacation in Salt Lake City, where I will do family research. If I find anything worthwhile on them, I will let you know. These Paffords are quite a problem!!

I have placed the copy of 'Pafford Sketches' in our local library. Thanks.

Dear Mr. Jordan –

Please accept my apology for the long delay in responding to your most welcome letter of January 6. I have been away a good deal since before Christmas – and things do pile up.

Well, I am so glad that Al + Ginnie Parmer brought us together by way of your sister-in-law.

The first fact is that I am very doubtful that the scrapbooks at West Georgia would contain any information of genealogical interest. I believe they were put together by office workers to keep track of public notices about the college which I was serving as president.

The Pappot who reached farthest back in our area, I believe, was one Thomas P. as mentioned by John Williams P. – and I have never had any specific knowledge about any antecedents (of Thomas); and I am not sure that I have ever known of the North Carolina connection. I have always liked to believe that any Pappots in this country were Southerners, though certainly the family (and I really think there was only one to start with) is now scattered all over.

My own most interesting contact with old family has been my greatly rewarding friendship with John Henry Pyle Pappé (D. Litt., etc.), now eighty years of age as ~~the~~ retired Goldsmith's Librarian, University of London. He is a Shakespearean scholar of note and also a provincial historian and genealogist. I have seen him twice in England — in 1958 and 1975 — and we correspond pretty regularly. My wife (Sally) and I had a very delightful time with him and his wife (Betty) in Bridport, Dorset, in September of 1975. I enclose a copy of a brief essay by J.H.P.P. in The Genealogist's Magazine about the family name. I am sure he would be pleased to hear from you at:

Hillside, Allington Park
Bridport, Dorset DT6 5DD England.

I am also forwarding separately a copy of John William P.'s "Pappé's Sketches" which I know he would like for you to have.

It would be a real pleasure to hear from you again.

With very friendly regards and best wishes,

Ward Pappé

DEAR MRS. JORDON,

FIRST LET ME APOLIGE FOR BEING SO LATE ABOUT ANSWERING YOUR LETTER, DATED OCTOBER 6,1980. ABOUT THE TIME IT ARRIVED, I MOVED AND IT WAS MISPLACED.

I HAVE JUST STARTED MY RESEARCH ON THE PAFFORD FAMILY. I AM SENDING YOU WHAT INFORMATION I HAVE AT THIS TIME, WHICH ISN'T MUCH.

TENNESSEE PAFFORD WAS MY LATE MOTHER-IN-LAWS, GRANDMOTHER. TENNESSEE PAFFORD MARRIED WALTER MAINOR. THERE WERE TWO DAUGHTERS OF THIS MARRIAGE THAT I KNOW OF.

(1) MINNIE VIRGINIA MAINOR
BORN- DECEMBER 2,1883 ATKINSON COUNTY, GEORGIA
DIED- 1962 WARE COUNTY GEORGIA (WAYCROSS)
BURIED- OAKLAND CEMT. WAYCROSS, GEORGIA

SHE MARRIED JESSE SHELBY SUTTON, THE SON OF MARTHA GASKINS SUTTON AND WILLAIM HENRY SUTTON. JESSE SUTTON WAS MURBERED IN 1920.

(2) RHODA MAINOR_

THE ONLY THING THAT I KNOW ABOUT RHODA IS THAT SHE DIED IN A NURSING HOME IN WAYCROSS, GEORGIA, SOMETIME IN THE LATE SIXTIES.

TENNESSEE PAFFORD MAINOR DIED IN KIRKLAND COUNTY, GEORGIA, BUT AS OF THIS DATE I DO NOT KNOW WHERE SHE IS BURIED. MY MOTHER- IN- LAW DIED IN 1979 I AM SORRY I DIDN'T GET MORE INFORMATION FROM HER. I DO REMEMBER HER SAYING ONCE THAT HER GRANDMOTHER PAFFORD'S FATHER CAME FROM SHALOTTE, N.C. (THAT IS NOT CHARLOTTE)

MY MOTHER-IN-LAW'S NAME:

ETHEL MAE SUTTON BRINSON
BORN 12-20-1912 COFFEE COUNTY, GEORGIA
DIED 1-5-1979 CHARLESTON, S.C.
BURIED KIRKLAND CEMT. PEARSON, GEORGIA
ETHEL WAS THE YOUNGEST OF FOUR CHILDREN BORN TO JESSE AND MINNIE SUTTON. THE OTHER THREE CHILDREN WERE:

(1) BEATRICIA LIVES IN WAYCROSS, GEORGIA
(2) LUDELL LIVES IN JACKSONVILLE, FLORDIA
(3) MELVIN CECIL - HE DISAPPEARED IN THE LATE 1940'S

MELVIN'S WIFE AND SON STILL LIVE IN WAYCROSS AS FAR AS I KNOW.

MRS JORDON, I HOPE THAT THIS LITTLE BIT OF INFORMATION WILL HELP YOU SOME WAY IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING THAT YOU THINK I CAN USE PLEASE LET ME KNOW. I WOULD APPRECIATE IT. IF I LEARN ANY THING ELSE I WILL FORARD IT TO YOU.

GOOD LUCK,
ANN PHILLIPS,

Dear Vivian,

I was going through my files and ran across your letter from last March on Pafford.

I had sent you names and addresses of other researchers and also family group sheets. You were thinking about writing a book on the Pafford lines. I am curious as to whether you got it published or not.

I would also like to know if you found other researchers that are working on my line.

I am enclosing some updated family group sheets. I hope to hear from you soon.

Dear Glenda:

How nice to hear from you again! I see your queries every now and then in the various periodicals. Hope they have born 'fruit'.

I had quite a flurry of activity on the Paffords a few months back. Really thought I had found something. We exchanged our records and after a great deal of work, (spending hours over my records when I should have been in bed).

The enclosed paper is really all that came out of it....but what gets me is after this flurry and after they had my records, I've not heard from them!!

I still have high hopes of publishing something on the Paffords, but it will have to wait until I retire. I plan to do that next year, in the spring. We are to move into a large new Library building, sometime this summer, so I really must stay and see them through the transition. Several projects that a rather major and have been my 'babies' for years, I feel that I must clean up so as to hand it over in the best shape possible.

So you see, don't hold your breathe on this Pafford book, but if the good Lord is willing, the end of next year (I hope).

In the meantime, I'm trying to re-organize my records, in a way, as I put my records on my computer. My days are long, at the library, and sometime rather physical, so I'm pretty bushed at the end of a day. So, that project is lagging.

So much for excuses. I'm so glad that you are still at it. Do keep it up.

Your groups sheets are safely put in their file and thanks for keeping me up to snuff.

Good Hunting!!

12 Oct 87 — no ans. to my long letter of Apr '87

Dear Vivian:

I know you don't know me. I am the older sister of Shirley and Janet. She had sent me what information you had sent her on the Pafford's. I had called the Pafford listed in our phone book here in Hot Springs and a Betty Pafford returned my call, she was the mother of the one here. They are in the William James family. I have taken the liberty of sending her your letters to Shirley and Janet so you will probably be hearing from her or some member of her family in Colorado or Wyoming. Some members of her family were working on the family history also.

She mentioned that there were four brothers who came over from England to North Carolina and that two of them went back, and two stayed. I have written to ask for whatever information she might have on this. She mentioned that in England there was a Lady Anne in our background and have asked for any further information she might have on this. She also was doing the family crest in latch hook and since I do cross stitch I asked for a copy of the pattern.

She did mention that her husband's grandfather was 5 feet tall, which is about my height -- 5 ft 5", and that their coloring was either blonde with a reddish tinge (my daughter) or they were dark with dark eyes. She also mentioned there was Indian blood on that side of the family also. I would be very interested in that part of our history as Grandma Hutton was said to have some Cherokee blood in her and did have the high cheek bones of the indians.

I am interested in all and everything about the Paffords. Betty had told me there was a Ray or Roy (couldn't read my writing) in Dallas or Houston who had done a whole history (any relation to you?) she was to find his address and send it to me.

I am real new at this so any tips on how to go about doing this would be greatly appreciated. I have checked a couple of books out of our library here. It doesn't seem that there were any Paffords (at least in the ones I checked) here in Arkansas.

Do you have any information on any here in Arkansas?

I guess I have asked enough questions and as its time for me to get to work I had better sign off. Just wanted you to know about Betty.

Jerry
Geraldine B. Dickey (Pafford)

Any info you have on all the Paffords would be appreciated. Jerry

Dear Jerry:

How very nice...another sister heard from!! Hope to meet you all face to face some day.

To answer your questions:

I know of no Indian blood intthe Hutton/Pafford lines.

I know of no Roy/Ray who is or has a book on the Paffords. Only one that I know of is the gentlemen in GEorgia, who wrote and published a little folksy journal of the GA Paffords. I mentioned this one in one of my letters recently.

I know of no Paffords in AK. (My Dad was born in Little Rock but that is the wrong side of the family!!)

First time I've heard of 'four brothers...two went back and two stayed'. The usual tale we get at the Library is ...'there were three brothers, one went North, one went South and the other went West'. I'm not poking fun...these stories have some basis some where, that is what research is all about....PROVING every statement that you make. You try to prove, birth, marriage, and death..(you are lucky if you cann prove two of these)...you MUST prove what we call GENERATION LINK. i.e. that the child is the child of those two parents. In our time, the 20th century, we have a birth certificate, by law, that proves we are the child of those two people. In the 19th, 18th and 17th centuries, it gets harder to find a document, preferably more than one, that proves the generation link. End of lecture.

We are fortunate in that we are working with an unusual surname,Pafford. But, Lordy, they did love to name their young'uns John and William, didn't they?

Since I have just recently made contact with the Benton Co.,TN Paffords, and other Paffords, it has 'spurred' me to really put together the little I have on the Pafford family. When I thought about this a little bit more, I decided that since I was going to put together this info, that I might as well put together everyone's lineage...you nice people that I've been writing to or hope to correspond with in the future. SOOOOOO I've put together the enclosed papers, sure hope that you can make head or tails from them.

Also enclosing a genealogation chart and family group sheet. If you have access to a copying machine, Jerry, or whomever, run off some copies and send them out. Fill them in as I will show you on my charts and mail them back to me. I must have rocks in my head, but I will act as a Clearing House for the Pafford material.

The enclosed sheets have the address, in Wash,DC where you could buy more, if you wish. I like these best because, the little circles make you put down your SOURCE...where you got the info. Mama told me... Bible rec....I have the marriage license,original... etc. We might as well do this right or not at all. O.K.???

What is desperately needed are the stories that only an individual can tell us. Those of you who were lucky enough to remember a grandparent, or great grandparent...tell us about him. What did he look like? Did he fight in a war? Was he wounded? What stories did he tell about HIS childhood or about HIS Mon and Dad?

These stories are the ones that 'put meat on the bone' of our ancestors.

Our children and all future generations need to know what they died of... cancer, old age, ????? The Doctors now days like to know about the diseases that seem to pop up in a family down through the generations....this is known as genetic genealogy. We have many patrons coming to the Library to research their family, because their Dr. has sent them?!

Please, please feel free to write or call and say....how in the world did you arrive at that conclusion? My records say thus and so. I've had to glean this information from Census records, wills, deeds and dry statistical papers.....they can be wrong you know. Especially the Census...you will note with my John H.....his date of birth or age, jumps around like crazy!! But the names of his wife and children concur, so I must assume that whom ever gave the info to the census enumerator, didn't know what they were talking about or the enumerator was deaf or SOMETHING!! I located John H.'s tombstone, but then, they can be carved wrong too. So you see why, you need as many different records, all saying the same thing, before you really can say or make a half-way definate statement.

I've spent all afternoon on this. I must stop and do all those things that we gals have to do on our day off from work.

I hope you will start sending in your records on your family....start with you and your marriage and children, your parents, their children; your grandpartents, their children....etc. etc.

Love,

Your Cuz.

Tenn. and some into GEorgia. The older folks in Tenn. and Georgia census records all say that they were born in N. C.!! The census doesn't tell you the county, doggone it.

I'm now trying to make contact with some of these Benton Co., Tn. 'cousins' somehow. Do you know of any living in that area? Or do you have someone that could give you addresses of present day Paffords in that area??

I don't want to overwhelm you with information but here are a few questions that maybe you already know or maybe your Dad knows;

Sarah Ann (1805)..her maiden name? (see chart)Pafford)

Mary Ann (1807),,her maiden name? (see chart,Hutton)

Do you happen to have snapshots of older Paffords? Grandparents, etc.?

One of my correspondence that is working on the Flanagan line, might be able to copy the photos of any that we thought were our people.

I will get this in the mail and eagerly await your answer.

Have a Healthy, Happy Holiday!!

most sincerely, your cousin,

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I am responding to your letter for my father, Marvin C. Pafford, Sr.

I believe we do have some information that will be helpful to you and would be very interested in what information you might have on the Pafford's.

I'm enclosing the papers that we have on our relatives. It seems that the John H. Pafford, who died in 1923, we have nothing on his family as of yet. My father's cousin, Beryl Pafford Vernon, who lives in Pennsylvania, says that the grandfather did have sisters and she will send what she has on the family to my father. Beryl is the daughter of Luther Pafford,who is deceased.

A sister and I will be checking with the county seat (Danbury, NC) for Stokes County, NC, which is supposedly where our ancesters came from.

We were in Marion, Virginia, (Smythe Co.), which is where all my father's and mother's people are from,and we checked four cemeteries in the process of trying to find the Hutton Cemetery, which is where most of the Pafford's are buried. I've talked to my father and we plan to go to Marion again soon to visit the Hutton Cemetery.

While checking the cemetery at Sugar Grove, VA we found tombstones for Mary H. Pafford and Muncie B. Pafford and for John William Pafford and his son. John William Pafford only died last [illegible] 1983 and was 58 years old, according to the Barnett Funeral Home Card at his grave.

I am enclosing what we have and will be looking forward to hearing from you.

Also, my daughter is a Junior at ETSU in Johnson City, TN and has a Professor named Dr. William Pafford, who says his folks are from Middle, TN and he is sending me some information on them. Who knows, we may all be related.

I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for my father.

Sincerely yours,

Janet K. Lester

Dear Mr. Pafford:

I've obtained your address from the Kingsport Telephone Directory. My husband and I were traveling through and I stopped long enough to see if any Paffords lived in the city.

Pafford is such an unusual name that whenever I find it, I always write, when I can, and see if the people know anything about their ancestors.

My grandmother was Safronia Adaline Pafford b 1861 in Smythe Co.,VA. Her father was John H. Pafford b 1833 in Smythe Co., VA. The Paffords married into the Hutton,and Flanagan families on Smythe & Wythe Cos., VA.

Is this your family? The census tells me that the Va. Paffords were all born in North Carolina. Do you know where in N. C. ?

I would be so grateful if you could tell me about your people. Any thing that I have on the Pafford family I would be willing to share with you.

I've enclosed a stamped,self-addressed envelope for you to answer me. Thank you for taking the time to answer me.

Sincerely,

Shirley Muldrew

Dear Vivian:

Thanks for your letter--it's obvious that you have put a lot of effort into researching the "Paffords" and I certainly appreciate the information that you have furnished. I received some information from Mrs. Virginia Pafford in Camden, Tn. who has also put a lot of work into this--it looks like she has some detailed information that you had mentioned before. Although I furnished you both with each other's address, I'm sending this to you because I'm not sure whether she sent it to you.

All of this has we wondering exactly which Pafford was the father of our John Henry Pafford and Sarah Ann Keyes--that's as far as we know for sure. I have been in contact (mostly for the first time) with some of my older Pafford relatives who I am hoping can help to solve some of the mystery. My father moved away from his family when he was married in his early 20's and didn't keep up or know much of his aunts & uncles, cousins, greatgrandparents, etc.

My children (I have 3--14, 23, & 24 years of age) are very much interested--we have a very similar problem with my husband's side of the family. His only two sisters don't have a lot of information on them either.

In any event, hope this provides some of the information you need and be assured that I will forward anything else that I think will be of interest to you.

Thanks again -- hope to have something consolidated before the year is up--(I'm new at this but I hope that isn't too optimistic.)

Love and Best wishes, your cousin somewhere in the tree--

Shirley Muldrow

P.S. Please overlook my choice of stationery -- I was at work!

Dear Shirley;

Your letter arrived two days before Christmas and I felt as tho I had received a gift from outer space. I had given up hopes of hearing from anyone I had written to while trying to find out some more family history. I hope you understood that I am only a Pafford by marriage, but that doesn,t mean I am not interested in finding out these things for my Pafford children. I would imagine that most wives are more involved that husbands in this sort of thing. Glenn is always happy to hear anything new I find out. I do hope someday some of us will be able to prove that Benton County Paffords really are decended from the North Carolina William Pafford. They know it but not on paper.

Dr. William Nelson Pafford did give your sisters name to me, and I do appreciate you answering and I will be only to glad to give you or anyone else any information concerning Benton Co. Paffords. Glenn is double kin to a good many of them and can remember so much about the family that I hate for it to get lost. It seems that when we sent our son Donald to UT at Knoxville, he was told he looked just like a young man who lived in Knoxville and attended college there. Don tried to meet the family but gave up after a few attempts. Last time we were there for a meeting, I copied down the address and wrote but received now answer. If we manage to attend anotther meeting,before Glenn retires, that is held there, I will take the time to call.

I know I read in a history of land transactions from Maryland or Virginia that a Thomas Reynolds Pafford had sold some land and now I am having trouble finding that again to be sure I really did see it. We also know that a Thomas Reynolds Pafford was to be deported to Barbados, but don,t know why. The N.C. William Pafford was born in England so a census says. It would be so interesting to find out just how many Paffords came from England and where they all branched out to the various parts of this continent.

Time?

What?

Mr. Albert Pyle
Pyle Insurance

John and William had at least two brothers and about 3 sisters. The other boys were named James and Randolph. Some historians in the Pafford clan have said that one of the other boys came to Tenn. along with John and William but there isn,t a land transaction or census record or anything else to prove it. Perhaps they stayed in DeKalb or Warren counties. I hope to get back to the Archives in Nashville and see if I can /find out some other information. It takes so long to arrange the trip when you have so many folks to get settled before you can go over the county line for even one day. I did find a Thomas Pafford in the 1810 Stokes County N.C. census who owned some sort of business. Guess he was overlooked but those before me because he was only listed the one time in the business section of that census. He could also have been the one over 45 who was listed in the household of William. I do hope you can solve some of the mystery for us.

I know we are all busy attending to our families and that can leave little time for other things. So - whenever you find the time to write, I will so enjoy jearing from you. and will send you anything you request and probably lots you don,t ask for. My file 13 stays empty because I won,t throw away awen one little scrap of paper. My children will have a hard time cleaning up after me if I don,t get it more together.

Thanks for writing to me.

Sincerely,

Virginia Simpson Pafford

Dear Vivian:

I'm writing you in response to your nice letter (long ago) to my sister, Jan Lester — another Pafford. Both she & I had good intentions of getting back to you long ago but everything else seems to get in the way. You seem to have more info on the "Paffords" than we had previously. I have two pieces of information, however, that you may be interested in.

First, Jan's daughter (Kathy) graduated last year from East Tenn. State University — where she met a professor named Dr. William Pafford — a relative of Dr. Pafford wrote to my sister for family information. Her name & address is:

Mrs. Glenn Pafford
161 N. Forrest Ave
Camden, TN 38320

(over)

Both are from Middle Tenn. -
Dr. Pafford's father was "Nelson" - that's all we know because Jan didn't have a chance to respond to the letter.

The second bit of information is that Jan & I had a chance to attend a 75th birthday celebration in Wytheville, Va for a cousin we had never met - she was daughter to my dad's father's brother - another Pafford. I also met the daughter of another of his uncle's - I am furnishing the info we have to them in hopes they can fill in some of the blanks. One of my first cousins said she could recall her Dad talking about "Safronia" -- he is now deceased but hopefully she or her mother can also help with the "blanks".

I hope all of this is not too confusing - It seems to be a "Paffoord" tradition to not "overly" speak of their "roots." In any event, I would like to uncover whatever I can. You seem to have done the most research, however - With most of us, we don't get past the intention.

I will send you anything I manage to obtain -

Hope you & your family have a great Holiday & Wonderful new year.

Love - your cousin

Shirley (Paffoord)

THE NAME PAFFORD, PAFFARD

By J. H. P. PAFFORD

Place Name

The name apparently comes from the place-name Pathford. It would not be unreasonable to expect that the two elements here, with their normal meanings, would have been found, joined in this way as a place-name, in different parts of England, meaning "the path to, through, or by the ford" or perhaps "the paved ford"; and that the derivative personal name would, in consequence, not be uncommon. In fact, however, the volumes of the English Place-Name Society apparently reveal only one name Pathford, which was in Devonshire between Chagford and Drewsteignton (The Place-Names of Devon. By J. E. B. Gover and others. Part II, 1932, p. 432). The name, with reputed dates of variant forms, is there given as Pathford 739, Patford 1086, Pafford 1242, the modern form being Parford. The volume also recalls the near-by farm called Pafford which had that name in 1330 and 1415 (Ibid. 485), and which the editors assume was also derived from Pathford.

In "Some Crediton documents re-examined" (Antiquaries Journal, Vol. 48, Part I. 1968, 59–86) Professor H. P. R. Finberg discusses a charter on the bounds of Creedy-land which he places "at some date not far removed from" 997; and, on p. 73, his translation of point 45 of the charter is "Upstream on the Teign to Path-ford" and his gloss reads "Where A382 crosses the Teign (713893). This is now called Dogmarsh Bridge, but the original name survives on both sides of the river in the corrupt forms Parford and (Great) Pafford." The places now called Pafford may stem from a personal name itself derived from one of the other two place-names.

In the will of John Windeatt of North Bovey dated 26 January 1759, he bequeaths his estates which include Pafford, and Great Pafford which is in the parish of Dewsteignton.

The names are recorded on the 2½ in. Ordnance Survey sheet SX/78; the references being Parford 713898, Higher Parford 714899, Parford/Pafford 727887, Great Pafford 728884.

The name is also found in the manor of Coomb-Pafford in the parish of St. Marychurch (Torquay) which is recorded in the Valor Ecclesiasticus of Exeter Cathedral presented to Henry VIII in 1534 (Dugdale, Monasticon, ii, 544–5 and W. R. Brownlow "Early history of St. Marychurch" in Trans. Devon. Assoc., 1886, 18, 149–60), but this, and a Pafford street name in St. Marychurch, may derive from the name used as a personal name.

Personal Name

Since no other place named Pafford has been traced it is reasonable to assume that the personal name derived directly from it and no doubt the place name had been used to identify persons from early times. The earliest uses noted are of persons living in Cornwall or Devonshire. The first is that of a William de Pafford, apparently living in Cornwall, who in four entries from 1324 to 1339 in rolls in the Public Record Office is recorded in monetary transactions indicating that he was a merchant of some substance. The Year Books, 12 Edward III (1338) refer to a J. de Pafford, probably of Devon. In the Devon and Cornwall Records Office, at Exeter, are two deeds of 1377 and 1389 concerning lands, etc., in Chagford to which John Pafford is a witness. Another deed there, of 1379, records the grant of lands, etc., in Whitchurch to John Pafforde (Powderham Castle Archives 131, 293, 380).

Entries for the name have been found in registers as follows:

(1) St. Mary Major, Exeter. Baptisms 1644, 8 and 9 Jan. Andrew and Anthoni sons of Anthonie and Barbara P., 1659 Grace daughter of Roger P., 1660 Charity daughter of Robert P. (2) St. Petrock's, Exeter. Marriages, 1682 Henry P. and Hannah Quash. (3) Heavitree, Exeter, Marriages, 1724 Robert P. and Margaret Walker. (4) Vivian's Marriage Licences, 1616 Nov. 22 George P. late of Broadwood Kelly and Dorothy Sparke of Moreton Hampstead; 1621/2 Mar. 21 William P. of North Tawton and Mary Northcott of Nymett Rowland; 1628/9 Mar. 3 John Peryam, Clerk, Curate of High Bickington and Amy P. of North Tawton. The spelling is apparently Pafford(e) in all cases.

In England the name seems to have spread little from the south. By the nineteenth century there were several families in Portsmouth, sometimes apparently using Pafford/Paffard spellings indifferently. There are two entries of the name in the London Telephone Directory, 1969. On the other hand the name is met with in several districts in the U.S.A. and is found in Canada.

The name Paffard, with normal interchange of a/o, is assumed to be only a variant spelling and unlikely to derive from an O. French pafard = a shield; but Spafford, which seems to be more common in the north of England, may perhaps be another form of Spofford, Spofforth, presumably derived from the place of that name in the W. Riding of Yorkshire.

My Reconstruction of the Pafford family from NC, TN, VA

Vivian Jordan May 1987

Stokes Co.,NC

William in 1790 Census has 2 malesunder 16; 5 females (1 is wife??)

William 1800 has 2 males 16-26; 1 female 45+ (a wife??)

William 1810 has 1 m 26-45 1 f 45+ (wife??)
1 m 10-16 1 f 10-16
2 m -10 1 f -10

Theory: The 2 males, 16-26 yrs in 1800 could be the Thomas 26-45 in Germantown and the Thomas in Sauratown that were in 1810 with almost identical families. The similarity of family age grouping makes me lean strongly to the fact that it is one man, some how enumerated twice!!

The 1 m 10-16 could be my John b ca 1800

William 1820 has no children enumerated, just female, prob. a wife

Thomas 1820 is 45+ in Warren Co., TN. It is his son, James, who takes the mules to GEorgis to sell and dies there. Thomas could be a brother to William

George 1820 45+ who could also be a brother to William. George has a son the right age to be my John,1800. George disappears from the census unless he is the older male, living with my John in 1830 (VA)

UNFORTUNATELY, THE TN CENSUS FOR 1810 & 1820 IS NOT COMPLETE, SO THAT LEAVES A GAP!

William 1830 is now listed 60-70 yrs, in Stokes Co., NC his 2nd wife and no children.

John 1830 is in Washington Co.,VA 30-40 with a male 50-60. This could be the George of 1820 and perhaps John's father

Thomas 1840 in DeKalb Co.,TN is 70-80. Probably the same Thomas in 1820 Warren Co.,TN and could be a brother to William

Dear Mrs. Jordan;

Your name was passed on to me by Shirley Mulhall and I decided I couldn, wait for you to get in touch with me. I have set aside this day to write to anyone I have an address on, and I also hope you are interested in Pafford family history. I was so surprised to hear from Shirley as it had been almost two years since I had written to the person who turned out to be her sister.

I am a Pafford by name only but am so interest in finding out any and all information I can for my children to have. Needless to say-the one who should be doing this is a true Pafford by the name of Glenn but he welcomes anything new I turn up. I joined the D A R on my mothers family and do so wish the line could be proved so Pafford girls could avail themselves of it should they want to. I have found each branch has his or her own ideas about dates and such and that won.t do for the D A R . It has to be proved. Glenn,s family say they are decendents of the William Pafford from Stokes Co. N.C. who served as a drummer boy in the Rev. War. It would be lovely to be able to prove that. I feel sure the rest can be lined up very easily. In any case, if you are interested in the Pafford clan from Tenn., I will be sohappy to pass on all that I have and all that I secure in the /future. We know some Paffords settled in Texas and I would love to have that information.

The Camden Geneological Society is in the process of getting a Benton County History published and I am having a lovely time reading all the family histories that come in. I know a good bit more information will show up from that source. We have mailed information out far and wide concerning the book.

I would appreciate hearing from you if you have the time to work on this.

Sincerely

Virginia Pafford

Dear Cousin Virginia:

Well, at least you are a cousin by marriage, eh? After sooo many years of fighting these Paffords and not having anyone else to share my 'misery', you and Shirley Mulhall show up!! How very very nice. I believe that I will try to write to you Virginia, and let you pass on any information that you wish to the others. Is that alright? I have hard enough time getting out one letter, without trying for several on the same family!!

I have very vague plans, at the moment, of doing a research trip to Kentucky this summer and perhaps stopping by Camden. It is so much easier to talk and show records than to put it down on paper. Well, that is all just 'hope'. So many things depend on just when I can take a vacation...the other staff members at the Library where I work; my daughter, in Germany is coming back to the States for a short stay...perhaps in July she doesn't know for sure just when! Things like that. Anyway, I can dream of perhaps solving this puzzle of just who my Pafford was related to in Stokes Co.,NC and where overseas he came from.

Shirley??
In my letter to ~~Janet~~, I really fouled up, I believe. She had sent an Obituary for Sarah A Pafford...these numerous John's confused me and I too hastily wrote back that something was wrong that John's wife was not Sarah Keys,but Martha Ann Hutton. I believe I was too tired to think stgalght, which seems to be my constant state of being here lately. Anyway, when I charted things out I could see that the John H. married to Sarah H. Keys was the son of John H Pafford b 1832..I guess. My census records don't show him on the census with his father.except in 1850 when there is a John Pafford 50 yrs b NC with Sarah Annn45 b Va; John(1832) 17, Robert 15, Eliz. E. 8 (big gap in ages here, wonder if all the babies born in this space, died?)(or it could be that Sarah Ann ?? is a second wife, who knows right now?)after Eliz. E. is Nancy 6, Cynthia 3 and 'no name' six months old which I have later determined to be named Minerva, because in 1880 Smythe Co.,VA, there is S. A. Pafford, 74 yrs, mother-in-law to Robert S. White and wife Minerva C. (my guess is that Sarah Ann Pafford was living with her youngest daughter, Minerva...John having died I assume).

With this profusion of 'Johns' and Sarah A.'s it is going to be a struggle to keep them separated. Please look at the enclosed census records and see what YOU deduce.

Let me hear from you. A thought: Is the 1910 VA, Smythe Co. Census available to you? If so, please read it and send all the Paffords that you find to me...o.k.? We do not own it as yet.

Dear Mrs Jordan,

I was doing some genealogy research at the Memphis Public Library and I ran across your name in the surname index. I am also searching for a Patford that married my great great great grandfather John Lewis Lawrence! All I have are the names – Sarah Patford married John Lewis Lawrence, and had 6 children.

Your card interested me and I wondered if you have any more information.

I know John Lewis received land grants and I am looking today at a Lewis Lawrence that is listed in the land grant index.

If we are on the same track I'd be glad to share anything I find out w/ you

Sincerely,

Mary Green

Dear Mary Green:

It is seldom that I hear from anyone working on the Pafford line. There are far too few of us, I can tell you!

Without any places/dates for your Sarah Pafford who m John Lewis Lawrence, I don't see how I can try to find them in my copious notes. So my answer must be very general.

As I go through my file folders, (as yet I do not have the Flanagan/Pafford line on my computer), I will just make a note for you as to what if anything that I find.

In 1984, I corresponded with a Miss Pam G. Smith, 7120 Winding Path Cove, Memphis, TN 38134. She iwas working on the line, her father, John A. Pafford b Carroll Co., TN 1919. I answered and never heard from her again.

There is a write up in the Benton Co.,TN., what we call a 'mug' book. This is a history or biographical type book that the publishing houses have latched onto. They will get a historical society in the area to sponser them and then charge people to put into the book, a short history of their family. Then they sell the book and the society gets a cut, I guess.

Anyway, always take these books with a BOX of salt, as sometimes they are very incorrect with many assumptions and no facts. Use as a guide, in other words. All the Benton Co.,TN folks in the earliest census that asked the question (1850) say that they were born in NC. There is a William Pafford in Stokes Co.,NC who is documented as being a Rev. War soldier.

The TN Paffords m into the Melton, Vick,Arnold,Madden, Cuff,Hall, Parker families.

I did not find a Lawrence.

I have found the name listed as Pafford; Parford;Paford. Some of my correspondence say that the name is English...I think that it probably is but no proof.

Dear Virginia:

Well, after all that mad flurry of letters, back and forth on the Paffords, silence. Guess it is because I found this letter just now, that I had written to you in May!! and never finished.

We, my husband and I, have had first one illness and then another. Seem to be on the mend now, thank goodness. My arthritis and sciatic nerve has just given me fits and then the medication that was given to kill the pain made me so sluggish that it was all I could do to go to work and then come home and fall into bed.

Mgy train of thoughtas all off on just what we were doing with the Paffords, but judging by the half finished letter, I was trying to get some questions answered on where or how you had come to such and such conclusion.

You have mentioned several times about that reference of the convict...Thomas Reynolds Pafford. I don't read that reference that way. It says ' Thomas Pafford alias Reynolds'. To me that says, that he went under the name of Thomas Pafford and also Thomas Reynolds. Please comment.

Also the statement, 'the NC william Pafford was born in England, so a census says"....what census??

In August of this year received a nive letter from Mr. J. Pavitt in England. He says that they are now of the opinion that the name Pavitt and Pafford are really two differnnt names.

Really must stop thes and get to bed. Just wanted to touch bases with you again and to apologise for the delay in answering your last letter. I know my ltter to Jerry Dickey in Ark. on the Paffords has yet to be answered...we all get side traced, I know. Too many things interfer with our research....such as living etc.!!

Do keep in touch.

Most Sincerely,

Most of the above had children and I will be glad to run down any of the lines you think you are interested. As I said, there isn t enough paper or time for me to do it all right now. I have made sure the John Pafford side is lined up in the Book we are getting together but am sorry to report that the William Pafford side may not be . The D A R chapter here has also compiled a Book of Marriages from 1836 to 1900 which is bein g sold for $17.50 if anyone is interested. A few copies are left.

Dear Vivian:

I do apologize for not getting back to you sooner but just had too much going on at one time. I never have been able to get organized very well. In any case, my latest project has been working with a group compiling a Benton County Family History book. We are about ready to send some of it off to the publisher for printing and I, for one, can hardly wait until it is all in book form and I can sit down and READ . My husband, Glenn, is related to everyone who lived in Benton County before 1945. Since then, we have had T V A and other industry bringing in people from far and wide. In the event you or anyone you know in your area would be interested in securing the book, I have enclosed the information and order blanks. Understand, I am not on a selling trip - just don,t want to miss the opportunity to let you an others know what we are about in Benton Co.

As you can see, I had some information gathered for anyone interested in Glenn's side of the Pafford clan and would have to branch out to gather any children of children and etc. I have in mind to make a few books just for the children and grandchildren of Elmer Eulas Pafford - adding my Lamars, Cox and Simpson information

It was interesting to know that Meltons are so close to you in Texas. I would be very interested in corresponding with anyone. A friend I have has a good bit of that information and I hope I can twist my husbands arm into making me a copy of most of her book.

I will get busy and do my best about William Pafford for you. I probably won t include all his childrens children until you tell me which one you really want to know more about. We don t have enough paper in Benton County for me to do that. Have to give stores time to get in a new supply. That is a joke but does tell you that the Pafford clan goes on and on. You have a good many in Texas.

While I have this on my mind - How easy or hard is it to get census records check for Texas???? I am interested in finding out what I can about a James Parker who would show up in Texas in the 1870 census. I don t have a location. His wife was Eveline or it could have been spelled with an A. There would be one daughter, a son named James, I think and I am sure about a son named Luther. Luther was 6 months old in the Tenn. 1860 census. This was the family of Glenns grandmother - wife of Gillespie Pafford. We know they went to Texas as Luther returned to B nton Co. from there.

Well, got to get busy with William if I want to get him sent to you. Hope I will be of some help with your gathering of information.

Oh yes - I don t want to forget to tell you that you had the right information concerning the Melton and Pafford marriages. You selected the right John and Sarah - some have gotten a later generation confused with the first John and Sarah which means the children also get listed wrong.

This time I will stop and hope to hear from you again.

PAFFORDS IN BENTON COUNTY
John Pafford Lineage

Pension Record of son Robert Collins says his father, John b. in DeKalb Co., TN & his grandfather James from England.

JOHN PAFFORD b June 24, 1798 in Stokes County, N.C. d Sept 15, 1851 in Benton Co., Tn.
Married Sarah Melton b April 2, 1804 N.C. d Nov. 30 1863 in Benton Co., Tn.

There is some disagreement as to when he arrived in what is now Benton Co, but my husbands side of the Pafford clan is sure the year was 1818 or 1819 as the oldest child is reported to hve been born in this County. Those who have seen the family Bible, now destroyed, assure us of this being a fact. Also, John was a Methodist minister and is recorded in the Memphis Conference as having organized Flatwoods Methodist Church in 1824. He lead what was called the "Methodist Society" prayer group until this Church was organized.

CHILDREN:

Glenda Lou is married to the Rev. Steve Mosley, minister of a Cumberland Presbyterian Church and they live in Milan, Tn. Children; Michael, Shane, and Mary Ann. Glenda was born Nov. 14, 1949

Donald Ray is married to the former Janice Marie Ward of Dyer, Tn. They live in Arlington, Tn, (just outside Memphis) and have two daughters, Amanda and Jennifer. Donald was born May 28, 1951.

The story concerning the family and decendants of John Pafford is as follows: John and a brother William, came to this territory around 1818-1819 with their wives, Sarah and Mourning Melton, daughters of Cooper and Phoebe Melton. The Melton family could have been in DeKalb Co., Tn. when the marriages took place, as a grandson implies in his Civil War Questionaire. the first John was a Methodist Minister and also farmed as well as traded in land buying and selling. Records of the Memphis Conference of the Methodist Church reports that John organized the Flatwood Methodist Church in 1824 and served as the pastor for many years. John also served as a Majestrate for the Quarterly Court.

I have not included William Pafford and his decendants but have a good bit of that informationn also and will be more than happy to share it with anyone who is intereste

I am so very interested in PROVING that John and William are really the sons of the William Pafford who served as dremmer boy in the Rev. War, from Stokes Co., N.C. Oral family history states this is a fact but definate proof is needed for any Pafford lady to be able to join the D A R from this lineage. My grandaughters can , of course, use my lineages as I did for this purpose. However, I would love for all Pafford girls to be able to do the same. It is a challenge.

If I have been of any help to any one, I am so grateful for the opportunity to do so and will appreciate any information passed back my way.

Dear Vivian:

Enclosed please find the copy of the Civil War questionnaire for Robert Collins PAFFORD, nephew to my William Pafford. The questions you can only guess at, but maybe you can figure out what he is answering to.

Hope this will be of some help to you or someone else. I just wish I could verify this James PAFFORD that is shown here. If by some chance I do some day, I will contact you and let you know.

Good luck in your searches and stay in touch via AOL.

He served three enlistments in the Revolutionary War, was in the trenches when Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown. He was a farmer but owned no negroes, but owned considerable land and other property.
10. I owned some cattle, sheep and hogs, when I went into the Confederate Army. My father lost his eyesight eight years before the war, and his family of 12 living children all let home except me, and the property was so distributed that little was left

Dear Vivian,

Hi! I recently got this message and I wanted to pick your brain. It appears she may be talking about John Henry Pafford and Martha Ann Hutton (d/o Robert and Mary Copenhaver Hutton). Maybe her birthdate of 1883 is a type for 1833. this is your line, am I right?

So anyway, I realized that I had very little about the family of John and Martha Ann Hutton Pafford. Would you kindly fill me in on their birth and death dates and their children, etc. (if you have it) It was my memory (ha!) that told me your maternal grandmother was their daughter Safronia Adeline Pafford who married a Flanagan?

Thanks Vivian! Please let me know if you can help Cindy. i would be interested in the line also.

Dear Cindy,

I read your message with interest. I do have several instances of Huttons marrying Paffords. I do not see a Worley Pafford, though. I am in the middle of a family crisis here and genealogy keeps me sane, but I don't have a lot of time right now. I am going to list some of the connections I have and if anything looks promising, let's dig deeper.

I have two Hutton branches. One is from George Washington Hutton. his son, Sebastion "Bascom" A. Hutton married Martha Sarah E. Pafford on 19 Feb 1876. She was the d/o William and Malinda Pafford. Sebastion died on 1 Jul 1887 at 39 years old. Martha died 26 May 1909. They are both buried in Hutton Cemetery in Smyth Co. Martha S. E. Hutton is on her stone, so I imagine she did not remarry. Even though Bascom died young, he and Martha had several children. do you want this information?

2. Now the one that I think you are looking for is Martha Ann Hutton (b~1833-36) She was the d/o Robert and Mary Copenhaver Hutton. Robert was the s/o Leonard and Martha McCall Hutton. This Martha Ann Hutton married John Henry Pafford on 21 Mar 1856. One of their children was named Safronia Adeline Pafford (she married a Flanagan.) Do you think your date for Martha is a typo? (1833, not 1883?) Martha did have three sisters (Elizabeth, Barbary and Eliza), but no Mary that I know of. There are a million extra Mary Huttons running around!

Are you saying that John married Martha, but had children with Frances A. on the side, or that you think Martha died first? Those Huttons were a colorful bunch! Ha!

I know a direct descendant of John H. Pafford and Martha Ann Hutton Pafford, so I will write to her and send your message to her and see what comes up.

I would like to hunt down those Hutton Paffords also!

(I have not been able to find out her maiden name) which would make Worley a half brother to John and Martha's children. I cannot find a death date for Martha - Also I have a William T. Pafford married to Mary Ann Hutton - I believe that John and William were brothers and could Mary and Martha be sisters? There are so many John H. Pafford's I am still trying to figure out which is Worley's father. Worley was killed in 1927 from a fall at the Cudahy meatpacking plant in Sioux City, Ia. My father Theodore Pafford died in 1955 and was only 7 when his father died so was too young to remember - My father and his brother and sisters were sent to Sugar Grove to live with relatives until their mother was found to take them. I know that there are alot of Hutton's and Pafford buried in the Hutton cemetary in Marion. I cannot find a death date for Martha - John and Frances were married abt. 1877. Thanks for any help you can give me. Cindy Pafford Combs

Dear Sirs:

I would be very appreciative if you would check your files for the records on an ancestor, Rev. John Pafford, who was a clergyman in Benton County, Tenn. around 1850.

He was born 1797 in North Carolina, but I need a copy of his obituary or anything that would tell me where in North Carolina he was born and the names of his parents.

Anything that you can find on this man would be most welcomed. Please bill me for any expense for zeroxing. I enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your convenience.

me if his scrapbooks contain anything printed on the earlier
Paffards (in N.C.)

I'm interested in the Paffards in the time period of 1780's and 1800's. If this information is not readily available-maybe it would if be possible for a resident of Carrollton to phone through these volumes and do my research for me?

I enclosed a self-addressed envelope for your

Dear Mrs. Hersch:

I've been told thatyyour library has the two scrapbooks of Dr. Ward Pafford's.

The surname Pafford is of great interest to me..notably those in North Carolina. Realizing that Dr. Pafford's interest is mainly in Tennessee Paffords, could you tell me if his scrapbooks contain anything on the earlier Paffords? (in N.C.)

I'm interested in the Paffords in the time period ca.1800 and late 1700's. If this information is not readily avail-a able would it be possible for a resident of Carrollton to brouse through these volumes and do my research for me?

I encloseaa stamped, self-addressed envelope for your convenience.

Dear Mr. Pafford:

I've been trying to reach you by phone for several days now. I'm guessing that you are on vacation. Your Aunt, Mrs. Wayne Smith of Beach Bluff, Tenn. gave me your number and address.

My grandmother was a Pafford. Born in Wythe Co., Va. My Paffords were in Virginia, in what was then Washington Co., from 1820 thru 1880. My John Pafford was born ca 1800 in North Carolina. Since most of the older Paffords in Tenn. seem to be born in North Carolina, I'm wondering if you can make the connection.

The William Pafford that is in Stokes Co., N. C., does not appear to be a connection for me. His will does not mention a son.

I'm told by a Pafford here in Houston that there is a Pafford Reunion in Tenn. some time in Sept. Do you know of this? If so who could I contact? Also a book, written by John William Pafford.."Pafford line in Review"...would really like a look a this record.

Will look forward to hearing ffom you.

Dear Mrs. Young:

Your name was given to me by Mrs. Irene Webster of Madison, N. C. in a reply to a letter I had written to Mrs. Edith Mitchell in regards to the family of Pafford.

My grandmother was a Pafford, her father, John Pafford was b. in Smythe Co., Va. and his father, John Pafford was born in N. C. ca.1800. I believe that his father was George found in Washington Co., Va. in 1820 census, and perhaps Georges' father was William, the Rev. soldier that you sent a pension record in for. I have seen this record and the will that he left.

Are you working on Paffords or do you know of anyone that is? I would appreciate any suggestions that you could make.

Dear Mrs. Jordan -

Answering for Edith Mitchell in regard to family of Pappord in our DAR book "Early Families of the NC Counties of Rockingham and Stokes", it does include a sketch on William Pappord that came from his Rev. pension application papers. There wasn't much information about his children. Only a daughter seemed to be ~~the~~ living in 1867. Of course, others could have moved away.

Please allow me to apologize profusely for being so late with what information I have on the Paffords. We have been so busy with work and Church and going out of town. I've decided that it's a definate possibility that I won't make it through Christmas!

At any rate, here is what I have. My dad keeps promising to go + see his cousin who supposedly has traced the family history to Scotland, but he hasn't gone yet. At Thanksgiving he said he would go after the first of the year. If I get any more information meanwhile, I'll send it to you.

I hope to hear from you soon and to see how distantly we're related. If I don't speak to you or correspond with you before hand, I want to wish you a Merry Christmas and a blessing filled New Year!

PAFFORD SETTLERS IN THE AMERICAS

Xerox by: Judy Pafford Cousin 25 Oct 85

BY NORMA JUNE PAFFORD ELLIOTT ANDERSON

The earliest mention of the Pafford name that I found during my research gives us our first "skeleton in the closet."

In 1688, Thomas Reynolds Pafford was sentenced to be transported from England to Barbados/Jamaica. (This information is given in Coldham's "English Convicts in Colonial America" - Code Book 1223, Page #112 - and again in another book of immigrant's index of names. Both books are in the Madison County Tennessee Library in Jackson, Tennessee.) Unfortunately, no age or other information was available. This was a dark time in England's history and no man, woman, or child was safe from such a fate. Many were guilty of no crimes. Usually those who were sentenced to death could choose to be transported and at the same time receive a pardon for their so-called "crime".

The next mention of a Pafford was one who was actually living in the American colony of South Carolina. In 1780, John Pafford of Charleston, South Carolina is listed as Addressor of Sr. Henry Clinton. (An Addressor was apparently something like an overseer - John managed property or some business belonging to Sir Henry Clinton.) John Pafford was a "loyalist" -- loyal to the King of England. This was during the time of the American Revolutionary War for independence from England (1775-1783) and John was banished and his estates confiscated. (This information is on page 502 in "The American Loyalists" by Lorenzo Sabine. This book is in the Madison County Library.)

I have no proof, but I believe John Pafford was the father of our known ancestor, James William Pafford. When John was expelled from the American Colonies in 1780, James William Pafford was then 15 years old. I also found where a baby girl, Nancy Pafford, was born in 1780 - the year he had to leave the colonies. John was no doubt jailed before his expulsion and we know that everything he owned was seized. With a new baby born, or on the way, his wife, baby, and 15 year old son were probably left behind. If this was the case, we can only hope they had other relatives to assist them. We do know that James William Pafford apprenticed himself out to work for a Mr. Davis at this time. The next year, James William joined the Continental Army and served as a "drummer boy" from 1781-1782. I never found any other mention of the possible mother of Nancy, since she probably lived in the household of someone of a different name. However, in the 1850 Census of Tennessee, Nancy Pafford, age 70, is listed as living with a Charles Hill. This would seem to indicate that she came to Tennessee along with the children of James William--apparently she never married. At the time of this census, the Hill family lived in DeKalb County.

These Paffords are the only ones that I found any record of during the Colonial years.

James William Pafford, born 1765/66 in England, appears to be the true "Father" of the present Paffords and I will trace as much of the family history from 1765 to 1985 as possible.

Family Tree of June Pafford Anderson To Be Traced 1765-1985

James William Pafford
1765/66 - Sept. 1848

Believe born in Marion, England. Emmigrated to Stokes County, North Carolina. Died age 82/83 in Nash County, North Carolina Was married 3 times. 10 children known (5 boys, 5 girls)

William Pafford
1796 -

Born in North Carolina, married Morning Melton. Migrated to what is now Benton County, Tennessee before 1830. Had gristmill on North Beaver Dam Creek area. Fathered 12 children.

David Dare Pafford
1841 or 1844 - 1899

Born in Benton County, Tennessee. Married and built log settler's house on Happy Hollow Road (Eva, Tennessee - Benton County.) This homesite is now the location of the campgrounds and group camp of Nathan Bedford Forrest Park. His brother, Elkanah, once owned the hill called Pilot Knob. He married Delphia C. Herndon and they had seven children.

Benjamin Franklin Pafford
Aug. 8, 1884-Apr. 28, 1960

He was born and lived on the above old homesite. Married Elizabeth Mai Carney and had two sons. He farmed and later ran a general store in Eva, Tennessee.

Arvin Lindell Pafford
June 8, 1907 -

Oldest son of Frank and Mai. Married Louise Goodman of Eva. Had one son and two daughters. He was born at the old homesite, farmed, then began working later with T.V.A. and moved on as Foreman with Gibson County Electric in Trenton, Tennessee. He retired to his farm outside of Trenton.

Norma June Pafford Elliott Anderson
June 22, 1936 -

Oldest daughter of Lindell and Louise. Born at homesite in Happy Hollow. Moved about age 5 to Trenton, Tennessee

Her children:
Ann Irvin Elliott Ragan Aug. 30, 1955
James Brent Elliott Aug. 29, 1961

JAMES WILLIAM PAFFORD Born 1765/66 Died September 1848

Numerous records show that James William Pafford was born in England in 1765/66. We know quite a lot about him because of his Revolutionary War records. Copies of letters written on his behalf for land grants, war pensions, widow's pensions, pension for minor child, etc. exist after 200 years. After the Revolutionary War was over and the United Statesproclaimed a county, the first census counts were made. North Carolina also has done a vast amount of genealogical research into the first settlers and William and his family aremention several times.

Important note: All of Tennessee and the present North Carolina was called North Carolina until 1790.

Virginia claimed the area of the present state of Kentucky and West Virginia until 1792. Many reference libraries have old North Carolina and Virginia records because they are actually records of the present Tennessee and Kentucky as we know it.

Daniel Boone crossed the Virginia-North Carolina mountains in 1760 to blaze the way for westward settlement. The first settlement was in 1769.

Now back to James William Pafford ---

He is listed as both James and William on several records and James William on others, so I will call him James William to help keep the record straight. A book in the Library at Jackson, Tennessee entitled "North Carolina Records of Names" gives this information: James Pafford, born 1765 in England, died Nash County, North Carolina. (This same book also notes that his son William Pafford, born 1800 (we think 1796) was born in North Carolina in Nash County and married Mourning Melton.) This shows that his son was married to Morning/Mourning before settling in Tennessee. ~~[illegible] is listed in this book and I believe he is the son of one of the [illegible] born prior to 1790. This information is given: Daniel Pafford, born 1813 in North Carolina, died 1893 in Indiana. Was Married 3 times: he was married in 1835 in Indiana to Hannah McBride, then Sally Boyer of Indiana, and third to Eliza Boone, also of Indiana. I will mention Daniel again when I talk of the year 1807.)~~

Of course, we don't know for certain how or when James William came to the colonies. This information is certainly in one of the books listing passengers to the colonies but I have not found the correct one.

The next information about James William is from the North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal (October 1975) which notes that James William Pafford was apprentice boy to the father of James Davis during the Revolutionary War in 1780/81. He left his work as an apprentice and joined the Continental Army.in 1781. He was then 16 years old.

He enlisted in 1781, right after the battle at Guilford. He entered service at Salisbury, Rowan County, North Carolina, as a musician and was made a drummer in the 10th Regiment under the command of Colonel James Armstrong. From Salisbury, he marched to Eutaw Springs, South Carolina and was in a battle there in September of 1781. Theythen marched to Charleston; from Charleston, he marched to James Island where he was honorably discharged in 1782 after serving nine months in service.

Another record shows that on April 30, 1783, a land grant of 640 acres was awarded to Pvt. James William Pafford for service in the Revolutionary War.

Seven years after the end of the Revolutionary War in 1783, North Carolina held its first Federal Census in 1790. It shows James William as the only Pafford in the state of North Carolina. It shows him living in the Salisbury District of Stokes County, North Carolina (Rowan County had been divided.) James William was listed as a family head and having two sons under the age of 16, four daughters, and his wife. No names are given for his wife and children. (Again, this information is probably available in the North Carolina Archives.)

I believe one of the sons was Samuel Paford (sp?) who was listed in the 1800 Census Index of North Carolina from Cumberland County, and never listed again. Since I never again found any records about these two older sons, I believe they died at a relatively young age and left no male decendants.

Further proof of this is that all Paffords in the Civil War were all in the Confederate Army and all were sons of the last three boys born to James William. These three were named: William, John, and Randolph. These three sons came to Tennessee and all Paffords in the Confederate Army were from Tennessee Counties. There were no Paffords in the Union Army.

In 1807, James William Pafford took the orphaned son of Sarah Mabe to raise. This child was Hiram Mabe, age 8. A neighbor, who is mentioned in some of the old records, John Carr, took in one of the Mabe girls. There were four orphans in this case. It is interesting to note that James William's third wife (a very young woman) was named Haney Mabe Bullins. It is possible that she was one of the orphaned girls.

The book "North Carolina Record of Names" (Library in Jackson, TN) lists a Daniel Pafford as being born in 1813 in North Carolina, was married three times, and died in 1893 in Indiana. However, according to Mr. Lyle Mabe, of Indianapolis, Indiana, state records show that Daniel Pafford's parents were from Scotland. He was orphaned at a young age and was reared by a family named Melvin. There were several children born in his three marriages, but there appears to be no male lineage. (Mr. Mabe who furnished this information is the Great, great grandson of the above named orphan Hiram Mabe.)

In the 1810 Census of North Carolina, James William is listed as the family head with 3 sons under the age of 16, one daughter, and his wife. This shows the birth of William in 1796, John in 1798, and Randolph in 1810. (The census shows that one of the sons is under the age of one year.) The older children have now died or married and left home.

In 1826, James William Pafford, now age 61, and another wife (Betsy or Bethany, age 34, are listed as living with the family of William Young. It was in 1826, that James William and Betsy filed for his Revolutionary War pension. Apparently, Betsy died or they were divorced.

On March 3, 1839, James William Pafford, age 74, married Haney Mabe Bullins. A daughter, Politha, was born. Records in the library at Huntingdon, Tennessee, show applications from Haney and Politha for Revolutionary War pension benefits. Mr. Leon Brewer, a decendant of Politha, prepared a book entitled "The History of the Brewer and Pafford Families". It is a black acco-press binder with the number 929.2B. It has many copies of James William's old records and is very interesting, but is incomplete on many of the records. Politha married A. J. Duggins.

In September of 1848, James William Pafford died in Nash County, North Carolina at the age of 83.

Dec 2 1826

State of North Carolina, Office of Secretary of State.

I William Hill Secretary of State in & for the State aforesaid, do hereby certify, that it appears from the Musterrolls of the Continental line of said State in the revolutionary war, that William Payford a musician in Capt. Carter's Company of the 10th Regiment was mustered in the year 1782 for the War. A Warrant for the full amount, or quantity of land allowed by Law to War Soldiers, was issued to Wm. Payford on the 30th April 1784, from which it is believed he served out the time for which he enlisted, and that his name is misspelt on the Rolls, where it is written "Payford" instead of Payford. Given under my hand at Office this 8th day of Sept. 1826.

WILLIAM PAFFORD 1796-1848 (age 82) He is buried in the old part of Flatwoods Cemetary. There was no formal gravestone-only a sandstone rock.

William Pafford came to what is now Benton County, Tennessee, prior to 1830 and is the only Pafford listed in the West Tennessee Census of 1830. This census notes that his birthplace was North Carolina. Shortly after the census of 1830, William's two younger brothers, John and Randolph, also came to Tennessee. John settled in the same area as William, while Randolph, the youngest son, settled further north in an area closer to Clarksville, Tennessee.

William and John married sisters--daughters of Cooper Melton. Records from North Carolina list Mourning (also spelled Morning) Melton as wife of William Pafford. Their first child was born in 1829, apparently a year before their moving to Tennessee. The Cooper Meltons, parents of Mourning and Sarah, also came to Tennessee and settled in Benton County close by their daughters.

According to a book by Smith, "Historic Benton", Page 55, William Pafford settled near the head of Beaver Dam Valley and had a gristmill on a small branch of Beaver Dam Creek. (A copy of this book is in the Lexington, Tenn. library.)

John was a Methodist minister and founded Flatwoods Methodist Church around 1830. This is still an active church with its records intact and dating back to its founding. Its large cemetary holds the remains of generations of Paffords.

In the book "Benton County Tennessee Heritage Notes", Page 14 - John and William are listed as taxpayers in 1836; Page 24 - Magistrates of Benton County included John, His son Elkanah and Elkanah's son, Virgil. Page 102 notes that John bought a stallion for $1.00.

William and Mourning had twelve children. The following is how they are listed in the 1850 Census of Benton County.

William Pafford, age 54 - Morning Melton, age 46

Children:

Cooper - 21 (1829)
Henry - 20 (1830)
Isabella - 18 (1832) born 5/2/1826-died 4/30/1899. Married Alfred C. Farrar on 3/14/1847. Alfred died 8/4/1905.
Sarah - 17 (1831)
Elcana (Elkanah) - 14 (1836/1878) Great-grandfather of by neighbor Virgil Pafford Stewart of Lexington, Tennessee. Owned Pilot Knob. Married Lou Mitchell. Was physician.
Elizabeth - 13 (1837)
William - 12 (1838)
James - 11 (1839)
Martha - 10 (1840)

DAVID DARE - 9 (1841) (Great-grandfather of this writer)
Thomas - 8 (1842)
Febe (Phoebe) - 3 (1847)

Information of interest about the above children:

Elkanah was in the Civil War and later became a physician and owned the hill known as Pilot Knob. He died fairly young and his widow, Lou Mitchell Pafford married Mr. Alfred M. Bryant in 1888. She sold the land containing Pilot Knob to my Great-Grandfather, Joe Goodman, on my Mother's side. He later gave the land containing Pilot Knob to the State of Tennessee for the beginning of Nathan Bedford Forrest Park.

Elkanah's three children are:

Ellen-Mrs. L. L. Stem
Cora-Mrs. Joe H. Dillon (Mother of Gussie Dillon Hollandsworth)
Virgil-Rev. Virgil Pafford (Methodist minister)

Thomas Pafford is the Father of Blake-who is the father of Henry Clay Pafford.

Cooper Pafford married his 1st cousin, Martha, daughter of John and Sarah,

Married Mary Sarah Melton

John Pafford was born in North Carolina in 1798, son of James William Pafford. There is considerable information available about him and his family. He came to join his brother William sometime about 1830, to settle in what is now Benton County, Tennessee. He had earlier married a sister to his brother's wife. Her name was Mary Sarah Melton, daughter of Cooper Melton. She was only 13 or 14 years old when they married. I must note that she and John were married 10 to 11 years before they made their home in Benton County and already had a number of children before coming to Tennessee. She was born April 2, 1804, and died November 30, 1863. She and John produced 15 children. Besides census records, copies of their family Bible records exist giving much information. One record was in Smith's "Family Bible Records of Benton County". Other items came from Smith's "Historical Benton".

John was a Methodist minister and founded Flatwoods Methodist Church about 1830 and exists today as an active church. I understand that his sister-in-law, Morning encouraged him to found the church and that her house was used for the first church services. Church records of marriages, deaths, etc., date back to 1830. John died of tuberculosis in 1851.

A news article notes that John paid $1.00 for a stallion shortly before his death. Another article lists John and William as taxpayers in 1836.

The children of John and Sarah are listed below as from their family Bible records and I have added additional information of interest from other sources.

1. Mary - born June 16, 1819
2/3. Twins- Elizabeth and Mourning - November 17, 1820
4. William Carroll-born Jan. or June 14, 1822..The 1850 Census shows his wife as Ann-29; Children: Lucinda (born 8-1-1841/died 3-7-1903), Randal-7, David-5, John-3
5. James - December 5, 1823..The 1850 Census shows wife Penelope-23, Children: Elizabeth-6, John-4, Thomas-1
6. David- April 14, 1826..The 1850 Census shows wife Catharine-21, Children: Elias-3, Susan-6 months
7. Thomas W. - December 23, 1827..The 1850 Census shows wife Delana (called Laney) age 21 Thomas W. is the great-grandfather of Eva Pafford Helms of Lexington, Tennessee -owner of Pafford Funeral Home. He was the Grandfather of the Rev. Warner Pafford (Methodist Minister).
8. John Franklin (called Frank)-March 18, 1830 (His daughter Allie married her cousin Cooper Pafford.
9. Susan - April 3, 1832/died December 9, 1919. Married Americus V. Vick on March 23, 1848. Americus V. died January 19, 1869.

10. Martha - December 17, 1833
11. Timothy - June 5, 1836
12. Lewis - February 28, 1837 (Pvt. in Civil War, "B" Co., 55th Brown's Infantry. Deserted 1862.) (Caution: Deserted does not really mean what it sounds. He was probably sent home with his brother's body and was unable to rejoin a company because of the great distances to travel by horseback or on foot.)

13. Hubbard - August 20, 1838 (Pvt. in Civil War, "G" Co. 55th Brown's Inf.) Died Civil War 1862.

14. Mary Ann - December 7, 1840
15. Robert Collins - September 27, 1842 (Believe married Elmina J. Cuff on September 24, 1865.)

RANDOLPH PAFFORD Born 1810

The 1810 Census showed that James William Pafford had 3 sons - one is listed as an infant.

The 1850 Census of Tennessee shows Randolph Pafford as 40 years old and living in Dickson County Tennessee (around Clarksville area) and having come to Tennessee from North Carolina.

The 1850 Census of Tennessee lists them as follows:

Randolph Pafford - age 40
Wife-Mary - age 34

Children:

William - 17
Thomas M. - 14
Palina - 12
John - 7
Cintha - 2
James W. - 6 mos.

PAFFORDS IN THE CIVIL WAR

All Paffords served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War years from 1861 to 1865. No Paffords were in the Union Army.

All the Paffords in the Civil War are from Tennessee. This leads me further to believe that all present Paffords are direct decendants of the three brothers: William, John, and Randolph.

The 14 Paffords in the Civil War are listed below. Unfortunately, most records published only list initials or do not distinguish between the cousins who had the same names. Their war records can usually be obtained at a charge - and anyone trying to identify one of these men could probably do so with one of the original records because it would surely have their date of birth and this could be compared with the dates of birth that are listed in this history. Two died: Hubbard (son of John) and J.B. (no further identification known).

1. James Hilliard (Pvt.) Co. E. 5th Infantry, Capt. P. G. Swor - wife Frances filed for Veterans Pension from Tennessee

2. Robert C., Co. A. 55th Reg., Tennessee Infantry, Capt. W. A. Jones

3. David (Pvt.) Co. B, 55th Reg. of Brown's Tenn. Inf. & 20th Cavalry, Capt. P. M. Melton - discharged 1862 Note: This is not David Dare.

4. Hubbard (Pvt.) Co. B. 55th Reg. of Brown's Tenn. Inf. - Died 1862 (John's)

DAVID DARE PAFFORD - Born 1841 or 1844 Died 1899 - Buried Flatwoods Cemetary

David Dare Pafford married Delphia C. Herndon and hewed a spot in the then wilderness for his home on what is called the Happy Hollow Road. He built a house of logs, with hard-packed dirt floor, and he and his bride moved in. (Someone told me that he later built a larger log house in front of the old one and the old one was used as a corn crib - I do know there was one.) Anyway, the log building closest to the Happy Hollow Road was added on to until it was a nice sized country home. Four generations of the family lived and were born there - including me.

David Dare was not in the Civil War, but many of his older brothers were. My father, Lindell, said that David Dare did help some of the men pull some of the damaged Union ships to shore for salvaging after they were damaged by Forrest's troops.

He farmed and was a very religious man. All his pictures show him holding a religious book and he felt he had had "visions" from God while meditating at Pilot Knob. He was so fond of Pilot Knob that he requested that when he died his funeral be held at the "Knob". Unfortunately, he died in the wintertime and the roads were too bad for his funeral to be held as he requested. However, a memorial service was held on the "Knob" for him on May 21, 1899. This is noted in Smith's "Historic Benton" on page 149. "One oldtimer, David Pafford, who had lived in that area for a life-time directed that his funeral be delivered on the knob, which was done months after his remains were laid in Flatwoods Cemetary. On May 21, 1899, the Rev. N. R. Waters delivered an appropriate sermon, as requested, after which there was a 'dinner on the grounds'. Some of the Paffords owned Pilot Knob for many years."

The 1880 Census lists David Dare and Delphia's household as follows:

David Dare Pafford, age 37, born in Tennessee, Farmer
Delphia C. Pafford, age 36, born in Tennessee, Wife of David Dare

Children: James Marion (Jimmy) age 15
Oscar Neale 13
Elmedia (girl) 9
William Marshall 5
Charles N. 3
Cecile (baby) born 4-11-1880

Their last child Benjamin Franklin Pafford was born August 9, 1884.

James Marion (Uncle Jimmy) married Sally --- and their children are: Arvie Cecile, Athie Thomas, Riley Melvin, Fletcher Leroy, Theodore Moses, Albert Malone, Joseph Floyd and Lou Tippett.

Oscar Neale married Julie Toddy and their children are: Corinna, Ross, Nolen, Jennie, David B., and Harold.

Elmedia (Aunt Meadie) married Harris Parks and their children are Paul, Garland, and Willie Albert (Bill).

Marshall married Della Holland. They had twins that died when one year old. A daughter, Ruby (Sanderfer) was born, and she is the mother of Billie Jean and Earnestine.

Charles N. (Uncle Charlie) married May Lewis Marrs and their children are: Harley, Marie (married Att Warrick), Nellie, Sylvia, Geraldine, Delphia.

Aunt Cecil married Willie B. Warrick at Way, Tn. and their children are: Donnie (1-31-1900/7-3-1919) who died at age 19 of head injuries after being dragged by a horse, and James David (J.D.) who died January of 1980. J.D. was born 9-18-1903. Willie B. was born 2-1-1879 and died 5-12-1935.

Benjamin Franklin married Elizabeth Mae Carney and their children are: Arvin Lindell and Tilford McGill (Tip).

Her interest is in the Young family
In a Rev. War pension of Wm Young states that Wm Pafford + wife Betsy 34 unable to work, are living with Wm Young.

She states: "At Raleigh Archives I found a bit of information: No Date:
Daniel Pafford, son of Betsy Pafford, on Snow Creek."

Snow Creek in Stokes Co., is where the Young + Paffords lived.

Apparently the first Paffords who came to Tennessee were Thomas Pafford and his family. The 1820 Tennessee Census shows Thomas and his son James (now age 26 and married) living in Warren Co. DeKalb Co. was formed in 1837 from Warren, Cannon, and White Counties. The present county seat of Dekalb Co. is Smithville. In the early 1800's, the main Southern migration route into Tennessee came through McMinnville - county seat of Warren County. Several records show that other members of the Pafford family stopped off in DeKalb Co. before moving on to West Tennessee.

For some reason, Thomas' wife and children are not listed on the 1820 census records. Thomas has a wife named Nancy, born 1780, and 6 children. Three of these are: Susannah, born 1808; Etherey (female) born 1812, and son Willie born 1810/20.

1824 Records show that Cooper Melton registered a claim for land in Benton Co. Cooper Melton and his son-in-law, William Pafford, were in Tennessee surveying land in 1824. John Franklin (1796) and William (1798-1800) both married daughters of Cooper Melton before leaving N.C. John Franklin married Mary Sarah and William married Mourning.

1830 Tenn. Census - William Pafford (1798/1800) is living in Humphreys Co. - later divided to form Benton Co.

1840 Tenn. Census

Both the William and John Pafford families are listed as living in Benton Co.

The youngest brother, Randolph (also spelled Randol, Randle, Randall) born 1810, and his family are shown living in DeKalb Co. Randolph later moved to Benton Co. and served with other family members in the Confererate Army during the Civil War. He left for Texas in 1888. He died at Maxey, Texas on 10/25/1905.

Thomas Pafford, age 80-90 yrs., 1 female 30-40, and 1 male 5-10 are also shown as living in DeKalb Co.

A Wealthy Pafford is shown as living in H. (?) County. The census shows 1 male age 5-10, 1 male 30-40, and 0 females. (I believe this information is wrong since "Wealthy"sounds like a male name. James Pafford, son of Thomas, married Welthy Corbitt, born 1800-1880. I believe this is James' wife and son. James is no longer listed and I assume he has died.) I also believe that Welthy and her son were the ones listed with Thomas. It was fairly common in the early censuses to be counted twice.

1850 Census of Tennessee

Many of William and John's families are living in Benton Co.

Randolph and his family are still living in Dekalb Co.

1860 Census of Tennessee - shows only Willie Pafford (age 45) and family in Rutherford Co. All other Paffords are in Benton Co. All the Civil War soldiers are from Benton Co. The war was from 1861-65.

Census of 1870 - All Paffords are in Benton County.

Dear June:

How very nice to hear from you. Long ago I received a copy of your 'Pafford Settlers in America', some 20 pages or so, from a Pafford here in Houston. Seems that her Father had received a copy from you, I believe. This young woman, Judy Pafford Quinn, had come into the Library when I was still working...several years ago when she came and of course, I pounced on her! For so long it just seemed that I was the only one in the world who had ever even heard of the name Pafford. (Does that sound familiar?) Anyway, now that I'm retired for a whole year now, maybe I can get back into doing research for myself once again!

I guess it was Phil Pafford that I sent the copy of your work to, for I just plain was so snowed under that I don't think I looked at it more than once. I'm so glad that Phil followed through on it and has been in contact with you. After all, it is his surname. I've always been curious about the Pafford line, because of its connection to my Flanagan line, of course...and because it is so unusual.

I would be so very interested in any information that you might have on this Randolph Pafford, that settled in TX. I'm so tired of being teased about my 'Yankee' forebears that it would just be great to prove that I was descended from a pioneer Texican. My Mother was b in Missouri, my Dad in Arkansas and my big brother and I were b in TX., but my Dad's lines are all New York and New England, Mayflower and etc., but Mother's lineage had really been a struggle. Doggone Irishmann just don't leave many tracks. Finally got my break in Virginia and on back into North Carolina. All I would like to do is beiable to 'jump the pound' and know where my people came from on the other side.

Before I get too far along in this letter, your mentioning of the Pafford Reunion sounds just wonderful. If the good Lord willing, I would love to flyuup and attend. Please give me the particulars. I would especially like to get with you, before or after the gahhering, and compare notes and talk about the family. With my tape recorder going, we might be able to get a book out on these people! I'm a fanatic on putting things down for posterity. Since I just had my 66th birthday on the 14 of Sept., that is my goal...get these records in some form, so that my three daughters and three grandchildren will have a record of their people. I'm particularily interested in recording the various diseases that seem to occur in different families. Genetic genealogy is here and of a great benefit to the medical field when they know the background of the diseases that follow a family.

Following your letter and your comments, I have some questions, naturally!!

Where have you found a record that names William Pafford,Rev. Soldier, as being named James William Pafford??

Please site the references that named John Henry P. and Sarah Ann Keyes are the parents of John Henry P b1832 who m Martha Ann Hutton. By the way, I have a little on the Hutton family. In fact, an interesting article that puts forth the theory or really the proof, the have legal documents that prove, that Hutton had been changed (clerical error?) from Hatton. I will be pleased to send you copies of this article, if you wish. Second thought, is this your line, even?

Next question. How do you know that (James) William had 5 sons and 5 daughters?

Wouldn't it be nice if the Government had asked for ALL names on the earlier census records? Wouldn't it be also great if some how the lost/destroyed early census records for TN were available? 'Course the one thing that we all must remember, just as in this past census of the U.S., many, many people were not enumerated.

I'm enclosing selected photocopies from the John William Pafford book, 'A Pafford Line in Review'. I corresponded with him, purchased 2 copies of this book and placed one in Clayton Library. The other work that he put out, was 'Pafford Sketches'...his childhood memories, no geneology per se. If you would like more pages copied from his first book, let me know. There were people waiting to use the copier so I just took what I thought was pertinent to us.

I'm told that the volumes by Folks Huxford,'Pioneers of Wiregrass,Georgia', v I, p217; v II, p231, give information on James Pafford, b England, son of Thomas. I intend to check this out when next in the Library.

Our Library purchased the TN volume on the questionaires filled in by the Confederate/ Union soldiers. Goodness, why didn't all the states do this??

The copy of your 'Pafford Settlers in the Americas' brings up another question!! In Coldham's book 'English Convicts in Colonial America', he does list Thomas Pafford ALIAS Reynolds. I believe that I went through this with Phil or someone, to me and several other experienced researchers, this means he used the name of Thomas Reynolds as well as Thomas Pafford...Reynolds being his alias. If we could but see the actual record of what ever 'crime' he was supposed to have committed, perhaps that could be cleared up once and for all time. In looking in our old English records in the Library, I've even checked for Thomas Reynolds.

In the "Devenshire Parish Registers" of Marriages, Edited by W.P.W. Phillimore, v I published 1909 in London, they list in the Parish of Kings' Kerswell, William Pafford and Elizabeth Cole 15 May 1757. (this reference is also listed in the I.G. I. of the Mormon Library) with the added dates of an approximate b for William as 1732 and an approximate b for Elizabeth Cole as 1736.
Also in a record in Salt Lake City,Library's I.G.I. file is Thomas Pafford b c1741 Cerne Abbas, Dorsetshire, England, m 1 May 1766, wife Ann Tussell b c1745, with one child listed, Betty b 11 Jan 1768. I didn't follow up on the information by contacting the people that had sent this info to the SLC Lib., but if you wish their names, let me know. I recorded this info in 1981.

Phil sent me the copies of his copies sent by the English lady who is working on the Pafford line. This info was about John Pafford trying to get recompense for his loss over here from the King.

At some time or another, I checked Surry Co., NC land records. I found John Parford receiving land, 100 ac for 50 shillings in Surry Co., now Stokes Co. 3 Nov 1784. Then John Parford and Thomas Parford, in 1797 buying land in Stokes Co.,NC. Volumes 1 &3 of the deeds were indexed, I did not go through v 2,(unindexed). If you wish I will do so if you haven't already gotten this info.

In the Court Minutes of Surry Co., NC, v 2, 9 May 1786, p 6 is listed Samuel Pafford, orphan of John, deceased, aged 20 yrs, 14 Mar last, ordered bound to James Davis until 21 years of age. Said Davis agrees to give him 3 months of schooling.
Also listed, 16 Aug 1786, p 12 is a Sarah Parford, orphan of John, deceased, aged 9 yrs., ordered bound to Jessee McAnally until 17 yrs and learn Art of Mistry of Spinsters.

I have a little more on land records, if you haven't gotten this already, in NC that is.

A William Pafford, doesn't show on the land records until 1803, (Spelling was Parfford !!) when he sold land.. I evédently stopped at 1823 when William sold some more land.

I really must close this or it will soon be a book.

I really do appreciate you taking the time to write and I am so glad that you are persevering in your quest to get this Pafford line settled. Please keep in touch.

In your chart of how we all 'connect', it seems that you didn't know the name of the man that Saphronia Adeline Pafford married. William Washington Flanagan b in Wythe Co., VA. If you ever see a Philip Flanagan in NC, let me know. He was b c1805 in NC and the last I find of him is in Hawkins Co., TN in the 1870 census and he is 72 yrs. old. wife is not listed.

I'm looking forward to hearing from you real soon.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs Jordan,

I responded to a query from Phil Pafford in Genelogical Helper and we've had a lively correspondence going. I was born June Pafford in 1936 in Benton Co., Tenn. Benton Co. is "Pafford" country and we have a Pafford reunion the last Sunday in May of each year with Paffords attending from everywhere. I've been working on the family tree for 15 or more years and have much information on our family. Three of James William Pafford's sons lived in Benton Co: John (b-1796) Franklin, William (b-1798) & Randolph (b-1810). Randolph later went on to Del & Ga. John had 15 living adult children & William had 12 to help Benton County's population. They were prominent early settlers in the 1820-30's and John founded Flatwoods Methodist Church - still active with two beautiful cemeteries - the old cemetary is the burial place for generations of Paffords. The reunion is held in Nathan Bedford Forrest Park which was original Pafford settler's land.

Cousin Phil sent me a copy of a letter from you that mentioned you found some papers on James William (lunatic), Rev War Soldier & pension papers, when he was married to Bethaney "Haney" Mabe Bullings. (She was a young widow when he married her - his 3rd wife.) She would later have his last child - daughter Politha.

James Williams had 5 sons and 5 daughters. I have been searching for the names of the 2 oldest sons who were "under the age of 16" in the 1790 Census of N.C. (Only know the name of one daughter.)

Phil unknowingly provided me with the name of one when he said he found John Henry - who married Sarah Ann Keyes, was born in Stokes Co., N.C. I found two references that state that John Henry P. and Sarah Ann Keyes are the parents of John Henry P. b. 1832 who married Martha Ann Hutters in 1856. This brings all of us together. According to the info from you, Phil and Shirley P. Mulhall, you all share the same ancestral line and are 2nd cousins. (See chart)

Since you work where you have access to genealogical information, I'm sending you my Poffenbarger Synopsis and what I've put together linking you, Phil & me.

Would love to hear from you.

There is a book on Poffenbarger by John W. Poffenbarger but it is on the Thomas (came to U.S. in 1810) Poffenbarger line. I have not found this book, but I would like to know if it mentions "Loyalist" John or James Williams P. of Stokes Co., N.C.

Sincerely -
June P. Anderson (Cousin)

Note: If John Henry Pafford, born ca 1774-1790 in N.C. was born in Stokes Co., he is certain to be the son of James William P. (born 1765 in England) because no other Paffords were in Stokes Co. until 1810. Phil Pafford apparently found this info. James William had 2 sons under the age of 16 in the 1790 Census of N.C.

PAFFORD SETTLERS IN THE AMERICAS

BY NORMA JUNE PAFFORD ELLIOTT ANDERSON

The earliest mention of the Pafford name that I found during my research gives us our first "skeleton in the closet."

1688-THOMAS REYNOLDS PAFFORD - In 1688, Thomas Reynolds Pafford was sentenced to be transported from England to Barbados/Jamaica. (This information is given in Coldham's "English Convicts in Colonial America" - Code Book 1223, Page #112 - and again in another book of immigrant's index of names. Both books are in the Madison County Tennessee Library in Jackson, Tennessee.) Unfortunately, no age or other information was available. This was a dark time in England's history and no man, woman, or child was safe from such a fate. Many were guilty of no crimes. Usually those who were sentenced to death could choose to be transported and at the same time receive a pardon for their so-called 'crime.'

1780-JOHN PAFFORD - The next mention of a Pafford was one who was actually living in the American colony of South Carolina. In 1780, John Pafford of Charleston, South Carolina is listed as addressor of Sr. Henry Clinton. John Pafford was a "loyalist"-loyal to the King of England. This was during the time of the American Revolutionary War for independence from England (1775-1783) and John was banished and his estates confiscated. (This information is on page 502 in "The American Loyalists" by Lorenzo Sabine. This book is in the Madison Co. Library.)

Phil T. Pafford of Davenport, Iowa, offers this additional information:
There is also a record of one John Pafford, a bricklayer, who emigrated from England to the colonies in 1774. He married and had 2 children. When the war began, he was pressured to join the "rebels" and fight against the King. Upon refusing, he was imprisoned by the Colonists for 2 years and 3 months, and all his properties were seized. At the conclusion of the War, he left his family in this country and returned to England and filed a petition with the English Courts to be recompensed to the amount of L 5100. His petition was denied for a number of reasons and he returned to America where he lived in South Carolina until he died at some undetermined age.

1780-JAMES WILLIAM PAFFORD - I have no proof, but I believe John Pafford was the father of our known ancestor, James William Pafford. When John was expelled from the American Colonies in 1780, James William Pafford was then 15 years old. Records show that James William Pafford apprenticed himself out to work for a Mr. Davis at this time. The next year-1781-James William joined the Continental Army and served as a "drummer boy" from 1781-1782.

These Paffords are the only ones that I found any record of during the Colonial years.

Pafford Reunion Has Homecoming '86 Theme

On May 25 Nell Morisette and Ruth Dowdy hosted the annual Pafford family reunion at Nathan Bedford Forrest State Park. A Homecoming '86 theme was carried out. The setting was an artificial fireplace with an electric log burning. Two flat irons were placed on the hearth, and a floral arrangement and candles were placed on the mantle. Placed beside the fireplace was a rocking chair with the Tennessee flag draped over it.

There were 72 present for the occasion. Mrs. Minnie Warrick who attended last year's reunion is deceased.

Relatives and friends attended from Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, North Carolina and Tennessee. The towns in Tennessee which were represented in addition to Camden and Eva were Gallatin, Lexington, Trenton, Huntingdon and Bruceton.

Mrs. June Pafford Anderson gave a brief talk on some of the history of the early Pafford ancestors. She was presented with a gift by Ruth Dowdy.

Names were drawn and several gifts were given.

A delicious lunch was enjoyed by all.

In 1984 while driving through TN we came to Kingsport, TN and in the phone book I picked a name, Marvin Clifton Pafford, Sr. When I returned home, I wrote to him. Strange arrangement followed, no one would talk to me on the phone, the father lived in the back of the main house, mother lived in main house and the one that answered my letter to her father was a daughter, Janet Lester. She sent a very confusing chart which I finally made sense of by a regular family group sheet and lineage chart to see what I had. (Later I was to receive from Phil Pafford, another corres., a chart that had been sent to him, similar but not exactly like Ms Lesters).

The Marvin Clifton Pafford,Sr. lineage went like this:
Marvin C. b 1910 was son of George Davis Hawkins Pafford b 1882 (no place) was son of John H. Pafford, Jr. and wife, Sarah A. KEYS! In subsequent letter exchanges, ~~I tried to point out that dates were really off to be practicable~~. A typed Obituary for Sarah A. Pafford purported to be from a Marion, VA newspaper, no name, said that Sarah A. Keys b 22 Mar 1853 had d 7 Dec 1925.

My math wrong!!

Phil Pafford's similar chart,shows his grt grandfather, John Henry Pafford b 1849 d 1923 with John Henry being the son of William T. Pafford b 1822-24 and Mary Ann ??? and that Wm T. is the son of John H. Pafford, Sr. b 1800.

There is a m bond in Ashe Co., NC which lists William Pafford and Mary Ann Hutton obtaining a license on 13 Feb 1845. Bond signed by Nathaniel Jon and witness was John Ray, Clk.

I also have a document entitled, 'PAFFORD SETTLERS IN THE AMERICAS' BY Norma June Pafford Elliott Anderson. Received by me in 1988. From her letters and these writings, I believe that she must be the one of the Benton Co.TN bunch that decided to gather the info together on the Paffords and have it for her children and etc. I received the first 20 pages from Judy Quinn, with the last page numbered 149 and unreadible.

Couldn't help but think that perhaps this is where Mr. Brewer got his info on the Pafford who was a loyalist, unless of course he happened to see the book, "The American Loyalists" by Lorenzo Sabine. Either way, it seems that they both say the same thing and this Mrs. Anderson at first bought into the idea that William or 'James William' as they call him..(no one has ever been able to show me where that names is written in a primary document!!!)was the father of the present day Paffords.

Then in 1991, I get this batch of papers from June Anderson where she says that she was wrong!!

I'm enclosing pertinent papers to see what you come up with. I now know why, I dropped the Pafford line and went to work or something else...I was so bumfuzzled, is that a word? that I just decided that I needed space and freedom from thinking about the paffords for awhile. You may reach the same conclusion but please, give these records some thought and let us know what you think.

PAFFORD SETTLERS IN THE AMERICAS

Sent by Judy Pafford Dunn 25 Oct 88

BY NORMA JUNE PAFFORD ELLIOTT ANDERSON

The earliest mention of the Pafford name that I found during my research gives us our first "skeleton in the closet."

In 1688, Thomas Reynolds Pafford was sentenced to be transported from England to Barbados/Jamaica. (This information is given in Coldham's "English Convicts in Colonial America" - Code Book 1223, Page #112 - and again in another book of immigrant's index of names. Both books are in the Madison County Tennessee Library in Jackson, Tennessee.) Unfortunately, no age or other information was available. This was a dark time in England's history and no man, woman, or child was safe from such a fate. Many were guilty of no crimes. Usually those who were sentenced to death could choose to be transported and at the same time receive a pardon for their so-called "crime".

The next mention of a Pafford was one who was actually living in the American colony of South Carolina. In 1780, John Pafford of Charleston, South Carolina is listed as Addressor of Sr. Henry Clinton. (An Addressor was apparently something like an overseer - John managed property or some business belonging to Sir Henry Clinton.) John Pafford was a "loyalist" -- loyal to the King of England. This was during the time of the American Revolutionary War for independence from England (1775-1783) and John was banished and his estates confiscated. (This information is on page 502 in "The American Loyalists" by Lorenzo Sabine. This book is in the Madison County Library.)

I have no proof, but I believe John Pafford was the father of our known ancestor, James William Pafford. When John was expelled from the American Colonies in 1780, James William Pafford was then 15 years old. I also found where a baby girl, Nancy Pafford, was born in 1780 - the year he had to leave the colonies. John was no doubt jailed before his expulsion and we know that everything he owned was seized. With a new baby born, or on the way, his wife, baby, and 15 year old son were probably left behind. If this was the case, we can only hope they had other relatives to assist them. We do know that James William Pafford apprenticed himself out to work for a Mr. Davis at this time. The next year, James William joined the Continental Army and served as a "drummer boy" from 1781-1782. I never found any other mention of the possible mother of Nancy, since she probably lived in the household of someone of a different name. However, in the 1850 Census of Tennessee, Nancy Pafford, age 70, is listed as living with a Charles Hill. This would seem to indicate that she came to Tennessee along with the children of James William--apparently she never married. At the time of this census, the Hill family lived in DeKalb County.

These Paffords are the only ones that I found any record of during the Colonial years.

James William Pafford, born 1765/66 in England, appears to be the true "Father" of the present Paffords and I will trace as much of the family history from 1765 to 1985 as possible.

Family Tree of June Pafford Anderson To Be Traced 1765-1985

James William Pafford
1765/66 - Sept. 1848

Believe born in Marion, England. Emmigrated to Stokes County, North Carolina. Died age 82/83 in Nash County, North Carolina Was married 3 times. 10 children known (5 boys, 5 girls)

William Pafford
1796 -

Born in North Carolina, married Morning Melton. Migrated to what is now Benton County, Tennessee before 1830. Had gristmill on North Beaver Dam Creek area. Fathered 12 children.

David Dare Pafford
1841 or 1844 - 1899

Born in Benton County, Tennessee. Married and built log settler's house on Happy Hollow Road (Eva, Tennessee - Benton County.) This homesite is now the location of the campgrounds and group camp of Nathan Bedford Forrest Park. His brother, Elkanah, once owned the hill called Pilot Knob. He married Delphia C. Herndon and they had seven children.

Benjamin Franklin Pafford
Aug. 8, 1884-Apr. 28, 1960

He was born and lived on the above old homesite. Married Elizabeth Mai Carney and had two sons. He farmed and later ran a general store in Eva, Tennessee.

Arvin Lindell Pafford
June 8, 1907 -

Oldest son of Frank and Mai. Married Louise Goodman of Eva. Had one son and two daughters. He was born at the old homesite, farmed, then began working later with T.V.A. and moved on as Foreman with Gibson County Electric in Trenton, Tennessee. He retired to his farm outside of Trenton.

Norma June Pafford Elliott Anderson
June 22, 1936 -

Oldest daughter of Lindell and Louise. Born at homesite in Happy Hollow. Moved about age 5 to Trenton, Tennessee

Her children:
Ann Irvin Elliott Ragan Aug. 30, 1955
James Brent Elliott Aug. 29, 1961

JAMES WILLIAM PAFFORD Born 1765/66 Died September 1848

Numerous records show that James William Pafford was born in England in 1765/66. We know quite a lot about him because of his Revolutionary War records. Copies of letters written on his behalf for land grants, war pensions, widow's pensions, pension for minor child, etc. exist after 200 years. After the Revolutionary War was over and the United Statesproclaimed a county, the first census counts were made. North Carolina also has done a vast amount of genealogical research into the first settlers and William and his family arementioned several times.

Important note: All of Tennessee and the present North Carolina was called North Carolina until 1790.

Virginia claimed the area of the present state of Kentucky and West Virginia until 1792. Many reference libraries have old North Carolina and Virginia records because they are actually records of the present Tennessee and Kentucky as we know it.

Daniel Boone crossed the Virginia-North Carolina mountains in 1760 to blaze the way for westward settlement. The first settlement was in 1769.

Now back to James William Pafford ---

He is listed as both James and William on several records and James William on others, so I will call him James William to help keep the record straight. A book in the Library at Jackson, Tennessee entitled "North Carolina Records of Names" gives this information: James Pafford, born 1765 in England, died Nash County, North Carolina. (This same book also notes that his son William Pafford, born 1800 (we think 1796) was born in North Carolina in Nash County and married Mourning Melton.) This shows that his son was married to Morning/Mourning before settling in Tennessee. ~~[illegible] is listed in this book and I believe he is the son of one of the [illegible] born prior to 1790. This information is given: Daniel Pafford, born 1[illegible] in North Carolina, died 1893 in Indiana. Was Married 3 times: he was married in 1835 in Indiana to Hannah McBride, then Sally Royer of Indiana, and third to Eliza Stone, also of Indiana. I will mention Daniel, again, when I talk of the year 1807.)~~

Of course, we don't know for certain how or when James William came to the colonies. This information is certainly in one of the books listing passengers to the colonies but I have not found the correct one.

The next information about James William is from the North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal (October 1975) which notes that James William Pafford was apprentice boy to the father of James Davis during the Revolutionary War in 1780/81. He left his work as an apprentice and joined the Continental Army.in 1781. He was then 16 years old.

He enlisted in 1781, right after the battle at Guilford. He entered service at Salisbury, Rowan County, North Carolina, as a musician and was made a drummer in the 10th Regiment under the command of Colonel James Armstrong. From Salisbury, he marched to Eutaw Springs, South Carolina and was in a battle there in September of 1781. Theythen marched to Charleston; from Charleston, he marched to James Island where he was honorably discharged in 1782 after serving nine months in service.

Another record shows that on April 30, 1783, a land grant of 640 acres was awarded to Pvt. James William Pafford for service in the Revolutionary War.

Seven years after the end of the Revolutionary War in 1783, North Carolina held its first Federal Census in 1790. It shows James William as the only Pafford in the state of North Carolina. It shows him living in the Salisbury District of Stokes County, North Carolina (Rowan County had been divided.) James William was listed as a family head and having two sons under the age of 16, four daughters, and his wife. No names are given for his wife and children. (Again, this information is probably available in the North Carolina Archives.)

I believe one of the sons was Samuel Paford (sp?) who was listed in the 1800 Census Index of North Carolina from Cumberland County, and never listed again. Since I never again found any records about these two older sons, I believe they died at a relatively young age and left no male decendants.

Further proof of this is that all Paffords in the Civil War were all in the Confederate Army and all were sons of the last three boys born to James William. These three were named: William, John, and Randolph. These three sons came to Tennessee and all Paffords in the Confederate Army were from Tennessee Counties. There were no Paffords in the Union Army.

In 1807, James William Pafford took the orphaned son of Sarah Mabe to raise. This child was Hiram Mabe, age 8. A neighbor, who is mentioned in some of the old records, John Carr, took in one of the Mabe girls. There were four orphans in this case. It is interesting to note that James William's third wife (a very young woman) was named Haney Mabe Bullins. It is possible that she was one of the orphaned girls.

The book "North Carolina Record of Names" (Library in Jackson, TN) lists a Daniel Pafford as being born in 1813 in North Carolina, was married three times, and died in 1893 in Indiana. However, according to Mr. Lyle Mabe, of Indianapolis, Indiana, state records show that Daniel Pafford's parents were from Scotland. He was orphaned at a young age and was reared by a family named Melvin. There were several children born in his three marriages, but there appears to be no male lineage. (Mr. Mabe who furnished this information is the Great, great grandson of the above named orphan Hiram Mabe.)

In the 1810 Census of North Carolina, James William is listed as the family head with 3 sons under the age of 16, one daughter, and his wife. This shows the birth of William in 1796, John in 1798, and Randolph in 1810. (The census shows that one of the sons is under the age of one year.) The older children have now died or married and left home.

In 1826, James William Pafford, now age 61, and another wife (Betsy or Bethany, age 34, are listed as living with the family of William Young. It was in 1826, that James William and Betsy filed for his Revolutionary War pension. Apparently, Betsy died or they were divorced.

On March 3, 1839, James William Pafford, age 74, married Haney Mabe Bullins. A daughter, Politha, was born. Records in the library at Huntingdon, Tennessee, show applications from Haney and Politha for Revolutionary War pension benefits. Mr. Leon Brewer, a decendant of Politha, prepared a book entitled "The History of the Brewer and Pafford Families". It is a black acco-press binder with the number 929.2B. It has many copies of James William's old records and is very interesting, but is incomplete on many of the records. Politha married A. J. Duggins.

In September of 1848, James William Pafford died in Nash County, North Carolina at the age of 83.

State of North Carolina, Office of Secretary of State.

I William Hill Secretary of State in & for the State aforesaid, do hereby certify, that it appears from the Musterrolls of the Continental line of said State in the revolutionary war, that William Payford a musician in Capt. Carter's Company of the 10th Regiment was mustered in the year 1782 for the War. A Warrant for the full amount, or quantity of land allowed by Law to War Soldiers, was issued to Wm. Paffood on the 30th April 1784, from which it is believed he served out the time for which he enlisted, and that his name is misspelt on the Rolls, where it is written "Payford" instead of Paffford. Given under my hand at Office this 8th day of Augt. 1826.

WILLIAM PAFFORD 1796-1848 (age 82) He is buried in the old part of Flatwoods Cemetary. There was no formal gravestone-only a sandstone rock.

William Pafford came to what is now Benton County, Tennessee, prior to 1830 and is the only Pafford listed in the West Tennessee Census of 1830. This census notes that his birthplace was North Carolina. Shortly after the census of 1830, William's two younger brothers, John and Randolph, also came to Tennessee. John settled in the same area as William, while Randolph, the youngest son, settled further north in an area closer to Clarksville, Tennessee.

William and John married sisters--daughters of Cooper Melton. Records from North Carolina list Mourning (also spelled Morning) Melton as wife of William Pafford. Their first child was born in 1829, apparently a year before their moving to Tennessee. The Cooper Meltons, parents of Mourning and Sarah, also came to Tennessee and settled in Benton County close by their daughters.

According to a book by Smith, "Historic Benton", Page 55, William Pafford settled near the head of Beaver Dam Valley and had a gristmill on a small branch of Beaver Dam Creek. (A copy of this book is in the Lexington, Tenn. library.)

John was a Methodist minister and founded Flatwoods Methodist Church around 1830. This is still an active church with its records intact and dating back to its founding. Its large cemetary holds the remains of generations of Paffords.

In the book "Benton County Tennessee Heritage Notes", Page 14 - John and William are listed as taxpayers in 1836; Page 24 - Magistrates of Benton County included John, His son Elkanah and Elkanah's son, Virgil. Page 102 notes that John bought a stallion for $1.00.

William and Mourning had twelve children. The following is how they are listed in the 1850 Census of Benton County.

William Pafford, age 54 - Morning Melton, age 46

Children:

Cooper - 21 (1829)
Henry - 20 (1830)
Isabella - 18 (1832) born 5/2/1826-died 4/30/1899. Married Alfred C. Farrar on 3/14/1847. Alfred died 8/4/1905.
Sarah - 17 (1831)
Elcana (Elkanah) - 14 (1836/1878) Great-grandfather of by neighbor Virgil Pafford Stewart of Lexington, Tennessee. Owned Pilot Knob. Married Lou Mitchell. Was physician.
Elizabeth - 13 (1837)
William - 12 (1838)
James - 11 (1839)

DAVID DARE - 9 (1841) (Great-grandfather of this writer)
Thomas - 8 (1842)
Febe (Phoebe) - 3 (1847)

Information of interest about the above children:

Elkanah was in the Civil War and later became a physician and owned the hill known as Pilot Knob. He died fairly young and his widow, Lou Mitchell Pafford married Mr. Alfred M. Bryant in 1888. She sold the land containing Pilot Knob to my Great-Grandfather, Joe Goodman, on my Mother's side. He later gave the land containing Pilot Knob to the State of Tennessee for the beginning of Nathan Bedford Forrest Park.

Elkanah's three children are:

Ellen-Mrs. L. L. Stem
Cora-Mrs. Joe H. Dillon (Mother of Gussie Dillon Hollandsworth)
Virgil-Rev. Virgil Pafford (Methodist minister)

Thomas Pafford is the Father of Blake-who is the father of Henry Clay Pafford.

Cooper Pafford married his 1st cousin, Martha, daughter of John and Sarah.

Married Mary Sarah Melton

John Pafford was born in North Carolina in 1798, son of James William Pafford. There is considerable information available about him and his family. He came to join his brother William sometime about 1830, to settle in what is now Benton County, Tennessee. He had earlier married a sister to his brother's wife. Her name was Mary Sarah Melton, daughter of Cooper Melton. She was only 13 or 14 years old when they married. I must note that she and John were married 10 to 11 years before they made their home in Benton County and already had a number of children before coming to Tennessee. She was born April 2, 1804, and died November 30, 1863. She and John produced 15 children. Besides census records, copies of their family Bible records exist giving much information. One record was in Smith's "Family Bible Records of Benton County". Other items came from Smith's "Historical Benton".

John was a Methodist minister and founded Flatwoods Methodist Church about 1830 and exists today as an active church. I understand that his sister-in-law, Morning encouraged him to found the church and that her house was used for the first church services. Church records of marriages, deaths, etc., date back to 1830. John died of tuberculosis in 1851.

A news article notes that John paid $1.00 for a stallion shortly before his death. Another article lists John and William as taxpayers in 1836.

The children of John and Sarah are listed below as from their family Bible records and I have added additional information of interest from other sources.

1. Mary - born June 16, 1819
2/3. Twins- Elizabeth and Mourning - November 17, 1820
4. William Carroll-born Jan. or June 14, 1822..The 1850 Census shows his wife as Ann-29; Children: Lucinda (born 8-1-1841/died 3-7-1903), Randal-7, David-5, John-3
5. James - December 5, 1823..The 1850 Census shows wife Penelope-23, Children: Elizabeth-6, John-4, Thomas-1
6. David- April 14, 1826..The 1850 Census shows wife Catharine-21, Children: Elias-3, Susan-6 months
7. Thomas W. - December 23, 1827..The 1850 Census shows wife Delana (called Laney) age 21 Thomas W. is the great-grandfather of Eva Pafford Helms of Lexington, Tennessee -owner of Pafford Funeral Home. He was the Grandfather of the Rev. Warner Pafford (Methodist Minister).
8. John Franklin (called Frank)-March 18, 1830 (His daughter Allie married her cousin Cooper Pafford.
9. Susan - April 3, 1832/died December 9, 1919. Married Americus V. Vick on March 23, 1848. Americus V. died January 19, 1869.

10. Martha - December 17, 1833
11. Timothy - June 5, 1836
12. Lewis - February 28, 1837 (Pvt. in Civil War, "B" Co., 55th Brown's Infantry. Deserted 1862.) (Caution: Deserted does not really mean what it sounds. He was probably sent home with his brother's body and was unable to rejoin a company because of the great distances to travel by horseback or on foot.)

13. Hubbard - August 20, 1838 (Pvt. in Civil War, "G" Co. 55th Brown's Inf.) Died Civil War 1862.

14. Mary Ann - December 7, 1840
15. Robert Collins - September 27, 1842 (Believe married Elmina J. Cuff on September 24, 1865.)

RANDOLPH PAFFORD Born 1810

The 1810 Census showed that James William Pafford had 3 sons - one is listed as an infant.

The 1850 Census of Tennessee shows Randolph Pafford as 40 years old and living in Dickson County Tennessee (around Clarksville area) and having come to Tennessee from North Carolina.

The 1850 Census of Tennessee lists them as follows:

Randolph Pafford - age 40
Wife-Mary - age 34

Children:

William - 17
Thomas M. - 14
Palina - 12
John - 7
Cintha - 2
James W. - 6 mos.

PAFFORDS IN THE CIVIL WAR

All Paffords served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War years from 1861 to 1865. No Paffords were in the Union Army.

All the Paffords in the Civil War are from Tennessee. This leads me further to believe that all present Paffords are direct decendants of the three brothers: William, John, and Randolph.

The 14 Paffords in the Civil War are listed below. Unfortunately, most records published only list initials or do not distinguish between the cousins who had the same names. Their war records can usually be obtained at a charge - and anyone trying to identify one of these men could probably do so with one of the original records because it would surely have their date of birth and this could be compared with the dates of birth that are listed in this history. Two died: Hubbard (son of John) and J.B. (no further identification known).

1. James Hilliard (Pvt.) Co. E. 5th Infantry, Capt. P. G. Swor - wife Frances filed for Veterans Pension from Tennessee

2. Robert C., Co. A. 55th Reg., Tennessee Infantry, Capt. W. A. Jones

3. David (Pvt.) Co. B, 55th Reg. of Brown's Tenn. Inf. & 20th Cavalry, Capt. P. M. Melton - discharged 1862 Note: This is not David Dare.

4. Hubbard (Pvt.) Co. B. 55th Reg. of Brown's Tenn. Inf. - Died 1862 (John's)

DAVID DARE PAFFORD - Born 1841 or 1844 Died 1899 - Buried Flatwoods Cemetary

David Dare Pafford married Delphia C. Herndon and hewed a spot in the then wilderness for his home on what is called the Happy Hollow Road. He built a house of logs, with hard-packed dirt floor, and he and his bride moved in. (Someone told me that he later built a larger log house in front of the old one and the old one was used as a corn crib - I do know there was one.) Anyway, the log building closest to the Happy Hollow Road was added on to until it was a nice sized country home. Four generations of the family lived and were born there - including me.

David Dare was not in the Civil War, but many of his older brothers were. My father, Lindell, said that David Dare did help some of the men pull some of the damaged Union ships to shore for salvaging after they were damaged by Forrest's troops.

He farmed and was a very religious man. All his pictures show him holding a religious book and he felt he had had "visions" from God while meditating at Pilot Knob. He was so fond of Pilot Knob that he requested that when he died his funeral be held at the "Knob". Unfortunately, he died in the wintertime and the roads were too bad for his funeral to be held as he requested. However, a memorial service was held on the "Knob" for him on May 21, 1899. This is noted in Smith's "Historic Benton" on page 149. "One oldtimer, David Pafford, who had lived in that area for a life-time directed that his funeral be delivered on the knob, which was done months after his remains were laid in Flatwoods Cemetary. On May 21, 1899, the Rev. N. R. Waters delivered an appropriate sermon, as requested, after which there was a 'dinner on the grounds'. Some of the Paffords owned Pilot Knob for many years."

The 1880 Census lists David Dare and Delphia's household as follows:

David Dare Pafford, age 37, born in Tennessee, Farmer
Delphia C. Pafford, age 36, born in Tennessee, Wife of David Dare

Children:
James Marion (Jimmy)	age 15
Oscar Neale	13
Elmedia (girl)	9
William Marshall	5
Charles N.	3
Cecile (baby)	born 4-11-1880

Their last child Benjamin Franklin Pafford was born August 9, 1884.

James Marion (Uncle Jimmy) married Sally --- and their children are: Arvie Cecile, Athie Thomas, Riley Melvin, Fletcher Leroy, Theodore Moses, Albert Malone, Joseph Floyd and Lou Tippett.

Oscar Neale married Julie Toddy and their children are: Corinna, Ross, Nolen, Jennie, David B., and Harold.

Elmedia (Aunt Meadie) married Harris Parks and their children are Paul, Garland, and Willie Albert (Bill).

Marshall married Della Holland. They had twins that died when one year old. A daughter, Ruby (Sanderfer) was born, and she is the mother of Billie Jean and Earnestine.

Charles N. (Uncle Charlie) married May Lewis Marrs and their children are: Harley, Marie (married Att Warrick), Nellie, Sylvia, Geraldine, Delphia.

Aunt Cecil married Willie B. Warrick at Way, Tn. and their children are: Donnie (1-31-1900/7-3-1919) who died at age 19 of head injuries after being dragged by a horse, and James David (J.D.) who died January of 1980. J.D. was born 9-18-1903. Willie B. was born 2-1-1879 and died 5-12-1935.

Benjamin Franklin married Elizabeth Mae Carney and their children are: Arvin Lindell and Tilford McGill (Tip).

11 July '88?

Dear Vivian,

I am back from my vacation back to Virginia, and got your note. Do not worry about not replying to my letter; I know you are busy, and these matters are not so urgent.

While in Virginia, I was staying in Wytheville with my mother-in-law, and since it was only 20 miles to Marion, I went down for a day and found the Hutton Cemetary. It is on a hill-top right above the eastern side of town. You go up a hill, bearing to the left and turn onto a gravel lane about 100-150 feet long. The cemetary is not marked, and I am writing to the City Council about that.

In that cemetary I found headstone for John Henry Pafford (20 April 1832 - 6 Jan 1913) who was our mutual great-grandfather. I did not find any stone for his wife Martha Ann Hutton. A picture is enclosed of his headstone for you to keep.

Next to him was a second headstone for John Henry Pafford (24 June 1849 - 8 Mar 1923.) Who was he? His stone also carries the name Sarah H. Pafford (2 Feb 1849 - 7 Dec 1925). Our great-great-grandfather was married to Sarah Ann Keyes, but this cannot be him, or the other John Henry would have been born of a father yet unborn. I do not know who this John Henry is.

There were two other Paffords there, pictures enclosed, a Favvie V. Pafford, 1867 - 1931 and a Mary E. Pafford, 1859 - 1910, and I don't know who they are either.

Later that day, I went to a wee village 6 - 8 miles away called Atkins where James Robert Pafford, my grandfather, had a farm. His farm was still there. The present owners do not know any Paffords and are not related. I also found a nice little cemetary where James Robert (brother to your Safronia) was buried (picture enclosed).

So I am building up my files, but I am gathering some information which I am not sure where to place in the chronology.

I also had a nice letter from a Shirley Mulhall (512 S. Rolling Road, Catonsville, MD 21228) who was a Pafford before she married. Her letter to me is enclosed.

I also got ~~from her~~ a long document (or a copy) dealing with an early ancestor named John Pafford who emigrated from Hampshire to America in 1774, and was bankrupted and disgraced. A copy of this 4 page document is also enclosed for your file. This came from the Soberton Parish Church, Sorberton (a small village near Portsmouth, Eng., where apparently the Pafford family had in the 1700's a bricklaying business. I was sent this by a nice lady in England with whom I have corresponded: (Mrs. Marjorie O. Lancaster, 6 southwood Court, Middle Warberry Rd., Torquay, Devonshire, T Q 1 I R T, England). I have enclosed a copy of her letter, too.

Enough for today. I am still following up leads and searching films, and as I collect more I'll be in touch.

Sincerely,

Phil

P.S.- I also will send you a copy of an article which contends that PAFFORD was a later derivation of Pavitt.

OBITUARY — MRS. SARAH A. PAFFORD

Mrs. Sarah A. Pafford, (nee Keys) died at the home of her daughter Mrs. F. F. Prater near Attoway on December 7, 1925 at the age of 72 years, 9 months, and 16 days. She was united in marriage to John H. Pafford June 1, 1871 and became the mother of fourteen children, seven of whom survive her. Her husband departed this life on March 8, 1923.

Her surviving children are Mrs. F. F. Prater, Mrs. Charles Medley, and Messers. G. D. and L. O. Pafford of Marion; Mr.. R. L. Pafford, Wytheville, Va.; Mr.. E. N. Pafford, Knoxville, Tenn.; and Mrs. M. T. Moody, Fredericksburg, Va.

One sister, Mrs. E. E. Cole, Damascus, Va.; and three brothers, Mr.. John L. Keys, Marion, Va.; Mr. B. F. Keys, Rural Retreat, Va.; and J. H. Keys, Sugar Grove, also survive her besides quite a number of grandchildren.

The deceased accepted Christ as her Savior and united with the Lutheran Church in 1871, and continued in fellowship with the same until death. She was held in high esteem by her neighbors.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Attoway Lutheran Church, conducted by Rev.. E. H. Copenhaver, assisted by Rev. Painter of the Methodist church.

The interment was beside her husband in the Hutton Cemetery.

(This notice appeared in the Marion, Va. newspaper; beside her husband's grave marker is a stone marking what is believed to be her husband's father's grave which reads: John H. Pafford, Born April 20, 1832, Died January 6, 1913.)

Transcription of my copy of original loose estate papers found in N.C. in Oct of 1984 in State Archives.

In 1841, 17 June John Mabe and James Mabe (in this document it is spelled 'Maib' were held responsible for one William Pafford,Lunatic, in Stokes Co.,N.C.

14 June 1842, Thomas Flincher and Martin Flincher were bound to take care of William Pafford, Lunatic

12 March 1844 the same Thomas Flincher and Martin Flincher were again placed in charge of all of the estate of William Pafford,Lunatic, to take care of said Wm.Pafford.

third document) appoints William Fincher guardian for William Pafford
1845 March term 1845.$96.00 per aannum . Wm.Fincher is claiming that he is owed $107.66½ for 'articles furnished to his ward and family'

10 March 1846 Stokes Co., N. C. Martin Flincher and William Flincher are bound for $200. to take care of William Pafford,Lunatic

14 March 1848 James Davis and William Davis for $400.00 paid to the State of N. C. in trust for the care of William Pafford, Lunatic

March term of 1849...hand written account from James Davis, Guardian of William Pafford gives an accounting of what is left of estate... and amount due him, (I think, writing in very poor) $4.48

then he writes ' My ward is dece'd'

So William Pafford, Rev. Soldier died sometime before March of 1849

Vivian Jordan

"You will particularly oblige me - and Serve the old Soldier . . . being quite an old man his recollection is not good - hence his inability to State the name of his Col. or Regiment-."

315. OUSBY, Thomas, Sr. (deceased). (Minutes of Halifax Co., NC, Court of P & QS, February Term 1851; Minutes of Halifax Co., NC, Superior Court, February 1859 and August 1860.)

February Court 1851. On 21 February 1851 Thomas OUSBY made oath in Halifax County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions "That he is the only Surviving child . . . of Thomas OUSBY Senr. who was a Lieutenant and Adjutant in a South Carolina Regiment of Artillery in the war of the Revolution that he did have in his possession letters from his Father . . . written to his mother the wife of the said Thomas OUSBY Senr while in the service of the United States . . . or soon after he was discharged from Service, That said letters have been destroyed by fire which if in existence would fully Identify that he is the son and heir at Law . . ." The Court know Thomas OUSBY, Jr. "to be a gentleman of high respectability and undoubted veracity" and order clerk Wm. W. DANIEL to certify the same to the War department. Rice B. PEERCE Chairman.

February 1859. "Satisfactory Evidence has this day been furnished the Court That Thomas OUSBY Junr. late of this County the son and only heir at law of Thomas OUSBY Senr deceased who was a Lieutenant in the South Carolina Continental line of Artillery and to whom a bounty land warrant No 2455 for two hundred acres was issued - died on the 4th day of July 1857 in possession of Said warrant leaving no Widow but left surviving the following named Children all of lawfull age viz - Andrew OUSBY - Jas L OUSBY William C OUSBY and Rebecca OUSBY who is now the wife of John R GARY Ordered therefor that our Clerk certify the same to the War department"

August 1860. [This is a statement substantially like that of 1859, but it seems to refer to a "County land warrant" and does mention Thomas OUSBY Jr's. will.]

316. OVERTON, Samuel. (Minutes of Pasquotank Co., NC, Court of P & QS, March Term 1825.)

On 8 March 1825 Samuel OVERTON, "a free man of Colour," residing in Pasquotank County, aged 96 years, made a declaration on oath in Pasquotank County Court in order to obtain the provision of the acts of Congress of 18 March 1818 and 1 May 1820. He declared he "enlisted for the term of three years, in the year 1776 in . . . North Carolina, in the Company Commanded by Captain Isaac MOORE, in the Regiment Commanded by Colonel Peter DAUGE, in the line of . . . North Carolina on the Continental establishment, that he Continued to serve in said Corps until the death of Captain MOORE, when a certain Duisha DAVIS Commanded, that he Continued in the Service of the United States until the taking of York town in Virginia, when he was discharged in the City of Philadelphia in the year 178[blank], that he was at the battles of Germantown, Charlestown S. C. and at the taking of York town in Virginia and at the battle of Germantown received two wounds." His name is not on the roll of any state. He did not make "earlier application for a pension" because "as long as he was able, he was desirous to maintain himself, but now he is too infirm to Support himself and family by his labour & in addition had the misfortune to loose all his property by fire in July 1824 . . ." He was a resident citizen of the United States on 18 March 1818. His property consists of one cow and two shoats. He stated, "My family Consists of my wife and Son David five years old." /s/ SAMUEL (x) OVERTON

Sworn 8 March 1825 "before us Sitting as a Court of record for Pasquotank County," and certified. /s/ WILLIAM WILSON, F. WHITEHURST, THADDEUS FRESHWATER, Justices

317. PADGETT, John. (Minutes of Rutherford Co., NC, Court of P & QS, September Term 1832, p. 124.)

"The declaration of John PADGETT setting forth his age (70 years) his Services as a Soldier in the Revolutionary war &c was exhibited by him & Sworn to in open Court, in order to obtain the provisions of the Act of Congress passed 7th June 1832." The certificate of the Rev. Drury DOBBINS and Francis YOUNG as to the applicant's age and the report that he was a soldier was sworn to. The Court declares the applicant was a Revolutionary soldier and served as he stated.

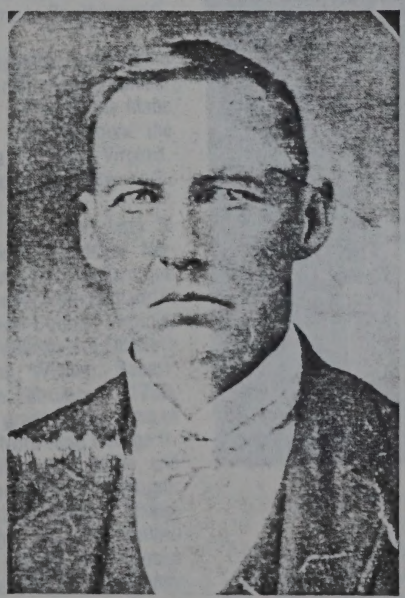
GREEN BERRY MABE, M.D.

668

Green Berry Mabe — born in Stokes County (1857) — was the son of Gabriel and Mahalie Deatherage Mabe. He attended school in Stokes and received his medical training at Jefferson Medical Center in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He practiced medicine for a few years (around 1890) in Stokes County.



G.B. Mabe, M.D.

A story passed on by the relatives is that the Dr. Mabe had so many relatives wanting free medical attention that he had to leave Stokes County to make a living. In 1895, he moved to Big Stone Gap, Virginia, where he practiced and established a clinic.

He wrote a book "Care of the Body in Health dren, What to do in Case of Poisoning, Preparation of Food and Drinks, Drugs Most Commonly Used by the Public, Nature and Art in the Care of Disease, Nutrition of the Body, The Heart and Circulation, Voice and Speech, Sense of Taste, Sensation of Skin, Phases of Human Life, Carriage of the Body, Indication of Character, a Discussion of Many Diseases and How Transmitted and the Drugs used for Treatment.

The preface to the book read as follows:

CARE OF THE BODY IN HEALTH AND DISEASE

PREFACE

This little book has been written with the intention of benefitting all its readers and I am quite certain that if they read it carefully, they will find something in it that is both interesting and beneficial to them.

There is quite a number of subjects treated of in the book all of which are of the highest interest to all classes of persons, the young and the old and the middle-aged, and I sincerely hope that it will prove useful to all those who read it.

G.B. MABE, M.D.

Big Stone Gap, Virginia.
April the 1st, 1904.

Green Berry Mabe died in 1905 in Big Stone Gap leaving no immediate family. His only relatives were in Stokes County. They did not bother to settle his estate so it was either taken for taxes or by an administrator. Some of his books were sent back to his relatives in Stokes.

HIRAM MABE

Hiram Mabe, my great, great grandfather, was born in Stokes County, North Carolina, about 1798. Hiram was one of four children. Sarah Mabe, his mother, died in 1807, and Hiram was placed by the court in the home of William Pafford, a Revolutionary War Veteran. Mr. Pafford agreed to give Hiram food, clothing, lodging, and to educate him to read, write and cipher. At the age of 21, Mr. Pafford was to give Hiram a new suit of clothes, a horse, a bridle and saddle, fifty dollars and his freedom.

The court also placed his only brother, Ambrose Wheeler Mabe, and his two sisters, Susanna and Sally in other family homes in Stokes County. It is said Ambrose Wheeler Mabe died in the War of 1812.

Hiram Mabe was married Lusenda Barrott in Stokes County on February 17, 1818. Taylor Mabe, the son of John Mabe, the Revolutionary War Veteran, signed Hiram's marriage bond. In 1833 Hiram and his family went to Brown County in southern Indiana, where he acquired land. Hiram died in Brown County, Ind. December 24, 1855.

James Madison Mabe, son of Hiram and Lusenda Mabe, was my great grandfather. He was born in Stokes County, North Carolina, October 23, 1820. James was one of six children born to Hiram and Lusenda. Four of James' sisters, viz. Elizabeth, Mary, Emily, Ruth, and one brother, William Franklin Mabe, were born in Stokes County.

The youngest sister, Nancy, was born in Indiana. James Madison Mabe served in Co. H. Eighty Second Indiana Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War. He mustered out July 9, 1865, holding the rank of Corporal, having served almost three years.

Sylvanus Mabe, my grandfather, was one of thirteen children born to James Madison Mabe and Ann (Noblet) Mabe, who were married in Brown County, Indiana, on November 3, 1842. My grandfather also volunteered for service during the Civil War and served over three years in Co. C. Sixth Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He was the last Civil War Veteran in Hendricks County, Indiana. He died June 30, 1940, at the age of ninety-six.

Lorenzo Fuller Mabe, my father, was one of two sons born to Sylvanus Mabe and Harriet (Bartholomew) Mabe. Lorenzo was born in Brown County, Indiana, on November 14, 1869. On October 7, 1900, he married Aurelia (Hurley) Mabe in Brown County, where she was born on November 19, 1872. Lorenzo died December 1, 1942.

I, Lyle L. Mabe, am the only child born to Lorenzo and Aurelia Mabe. My birth date is October 6, 1911. I was born in Clayton, Indiana, Hendricks County. Since retirement in 1973, from the Indiana State Board of Accounts, a considerable amount of time has been spent researching the Mabe and Hurley families. Both families came to Southern Indiana from North Carolina.

There are many Mabe families still residing not only in Stokes and Rockingham Counties, but in other surrounding areas. In the Mabe family research to date, we have found the Mabes in Texas, California, Missouri, Virginia, Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky and New York, just to mention a few.

The first Mabes (our line) goes back to William Mabe, who was born at Bridstow, Herfordshire, England, about 1717. William and his wife, Elizabeth, came over from England in 1738 and settled in Hanover County, Virginia, now Albermarle County. William and Elizabeth had five sons, viz. John, William, Robert, Phillip, and Charles. On February 1, 1738, William Mabe received a grant of 204 acres of land in Hanover County from King George II.

The oldest son of William John Mabe, and his wife Nanny had four sons and three daughters, viz, John N., Reuben, Robert, Phillip, Elizabeth, Ann, and Rachel. Since the families of John, the Rev. War veteran, and Reuben have been well documented, it is presently believed that our line descends from Robert Mabe.

I have one son, Stephen Kent, born April 7, 1941, in Indianapolis, Indiana. He has one son, Stephen Kent, born January 21, 1968, who resides in Carmel, Indiana. My only daughter, Judith Lyle (Buser) born April 25, 1938, is married and living in Mohegan Lake, N.Y. She and her husband, B.J. Buser, have one son, Curtis Lyle, and one daughter, Amy Jo.

Dear Mr. Mabe:

Thank you for your letter of the 18th and especially your card! My husband is 'semi' retired..just wish I could get him to do some of my research for me.

I've worked in Clayton Genealogical Library for 5 years and so I' m busy helping others and never have enough time to do sustained research on my own lines. We have three daughters and two grandchildren.

My Paffords are all Va. but the oldest are all b. N. C. the Tenn. Paffords are the same. In Indiana, K've checked the first census (index) 1820..no Paffords; 1830 Nil..... 1830-NDaniel Pafford is in Lawrence and 1850, he is listed. No other Paffords in Indiana.

As to your Mabe/Pafford. On Microfiche, the N. C. Archives have put all available marriages. I've found this;
'Bethaney (Haney) Bullin nee Mabe, m. 3 May 1839 in Stokes Co., N. C. m. by William Ward, acting Justice of Peace. John Mabb, witness." She died 8 April 1864, Stokes Co., N. C. (don't know where I got this).
This I found in N. C. Rev. Soldiers Volume. 'William Pafford enlisted in Rowan Co., shortly after battle of Guilford Court house in Company of Capt. Wm. Armstrong. Enlisted Continental line of N. C. for duration of REv. War. Served as drummer in battle of Eutaw Springs. REsident of Stokes applied for pension 13 Sept 1826, stated no living children, only wife Betsy.(first) Only survinging children in 1867 of William and Haney(second) Pafford, Politha Pafford married A. J. Duggins.

I'm enclosing copy of wabe surname in Houstons directory. Hope this helps you. If any other Paffords write to you, give themmy name and address and I'll be glad to see if I can help. I only answer letters when I receive a SASE!! Without a self-addressed, stamped envelope, I do nothing!!!!

Following is an excerpt from an old 1884 history of Monroe County (Van Buren Twp) p. 649

— Daniel Pafford —

Born in summer of 1814 in N.C. only child of his parents who were natives of Scotland. Daniel came to Indiana in 1822 in company with a family named Melvin he then being an orphan. They settled in Lawrence Co., Indiana, and Daniel remained with them until he was 17 yrs. of age. He then began working at $1.00 per week then later at $8.00 per month.

On Aug. 13, 1835 Daniel married Hannah McBride of Lawrence Co., Ind. daughter of John and Mary (Goodstuff) McBride. John being of English and Mary of Irish descent They have had 10 children but only seven living — Gideon, Mary (Belanger), Elizabeth (Mayo), Frank, Solomon, Janet (Gentry) and John. In 1865 Daniel married Sarah Key of Lawrence Co., Ind. who was the daughter of Thomas & Polly Key. Sarah passed away in 1880 as did his first wife, Hannah, prior to his second marriage. Then in July 1882 Daniel took his third wife, Eliza Stone of Monroe Co. Ind., daughter of Wm and Evaline (Hight) Roseberry. Mrs. Pafford is a member of the Christian Church. Mr. Daniel Pafford is a Baptist and owns 265 acres of land with good house barn and outbuildings as well as an orchard. He is a solid Democrat and first voted for Van Buren.

(Note: Remember all of this was written in 1884)

Probably none of the above will help you with your line of Paffords but it will let you know there were some in southern Indiana in the late 1800's.

My g. g. grandfather, Hiram Mabe, was born about 1798 in Stokes Co, N.C. In 1806 he was placed by the court with Mr. William Pafford who had no children. My Hiram remained with Mr. Pafford until he was 21 yrs. of age — then in 1818 he married Lucinda Barrott there in Danbury, Stokes Co., N.C. My Hiram had 1 brother and two sisters but they were all placed in different homes by the court. Their mother, Sarah Mabe, passed away about 1807 and to date have been unable to determine who was her husband.

My line of Mabe briefly is —

1. Hiram Mabe — 1798 N.C
2. James Madison Mabe - 1820 N.C.
3. Sylvanus Mabe — 1844, Brown Co., Ind.
4 Lorenzo Mabe — 1869, Brown Co, Ind.
* 5. Lyle Mabe — 1911, Hendricks Co. Ind

* I have a daughter, age 40, and a son, age 38 and 3 grandchildren.

Bethaney (Haney) Bullin nee Mabe

Relative to the Haney Mabe who was married to Wm Pafford, we do not know who she was. Do you have a date of their marriage? 3 MAY 1839 Stokes Co. I was of the opinion that he didn't have a wife when Hiram was placed in his home in 1806 by the court there in Stokes Co. but perhaps I am in error.

There are some Mabe families still in Texas so if you see any in your research or phone book please send along their names.

Sorry that more help could be given you but maybe we can exchange some info now and in the future.

Sincerely,
Lyle L. Mabe

Dear Mrs. Jordon:

9-13-1979

Thanks very much for your nice letter of 8-24-79. It was very informative and the names of the 12 Mabe listings in your telephone directory I am hoping will be productive — surely I will find one or two who will be interested in genealogy.

You may be sure that if I contact anyone with Pafford info your name will be furnished to them.

In your work if you should find anyone interested in my lines — Mabe, Hurley, Kreitzer or Bartholomew please give them my name as I have considerable info on each of them. My interest in Wm Pafford was because the Court placed my g-g grandfather, Hiram Mabe, in his custody in the year 1806. Where he remained until marriage in 1817. Good luck, Lyle

Dear Mr. Mabe:

Mrs. Violet K. Young gave me your address with the hope that perhaps we could help each other. I'm working on the Pafford line and she said perhaps you knew of someone that was interested in this line also.

My grandmother was a Pafford and I've traced her line through Virginia Washington and Wythe Cos., on to my John Pafford born ca 1800 N.C.

I've seen the Stokes Co. N. C., William Pafford who married the Haney Mabe, but his will doesn't mention a son nor can I find any connection to this Pafford. Most of the older Paffords in Tenn. are born in N. C. so there must be some connection!

Would appreciate any help or suggestions that you might give me.

ELIJAH LYNCH--Born ca 1760 VA, died 20 Dec 1839 Rockingham Co, NC; md 5 Oct 1785 Culpeper Co, VA Rose Crawford, born ca 1765, died 18 June 1844 Rockingham Co, NC.

While a resident of Culpeper Co, VA, Elijah Lynch enlisted sometime during 1778. He served as a private in the company of Capt James Kirtley and Capt Porter in the regiment of Maj John Roberts and Col Francis Taylor. This was the regiment of Virginia Guards and was first stationed at the barracks in Albemarle Co, VA and then at Winchester, VA. He was discharged in 1781 after three years and four months of service.

On the 28th of Nov 1832, Elkjah Lynch applied for a pension on his service in the Revolutionary War while living in Rockingham Co, NC. He was placed on the NC Roll of Pensioners May 1833 at $88 per annum. On 27 Nov 1844, Aaron Lynch (age 47) applied for a settlement ot the heirs of Elijah and Rose Lynch. The claim was allowed. (Pension File #W-5032)

Children named in pension claim, not necessarily in order:

1--Aaron Lynch.

2--Elijah Lynch Jr.

3--Robert Lunch.

4--Ann Lynch married Alexander Grogan.

5--Sarah Lynch married John Willson.

ROBERT MABE--Born in Albemarle Co, VA, he was the third son of William and Elizabeth Mabe. In 1762, as an heir, he acquired land in Virginia which he soon sold and moved before 1771 to the area of Rowan County that became Surry Co in 1771 and Stokes Co, NC in 1789, living near Danbury. In 1778, he received a grant of 150 acres lying on both sides of Dan River. Later 50 acres was added to extend to Seven Island Creek. He was a miner and a farmer and died in Stokes County after 1810.

As a resident of Surry County, he served the cause of the American Revolution as shown by a voucher dated 1782 and listed in the Treasurer and Comptroller Records of the Revolutionary Army Accounts, Vol XII.

It is thought that Robert Mabe had the following children but George and Fannie are the only proven ones at this time:

1--David Mabe.

2--William Mabe.

3--Lloyd Mabe.

4--Robert Mabe Jr.

5--George Mabe, born 1775 Surry Co, NC, died after 1850 Stokes Co; married 1812 Rebecca Young (dau of William and Mary Young), born 1787.

6--John Mabe.

7--Sarah Mabe.

8--Winneford Mabe.

9--Fannie Mabe md William Shelton.

Transcription of my copy of original loose estate papers found in N.C. in Oct of 1984 in State Archives.

In 1841, 17 June John Mabe and James Mabe (in this document it is spelled 'Maib' were held responsible for one William Pafford,Lunatic, in Stokes Co.,N.C.

14 June 1842, Thomas Flincher and Martin Flincher were bound to take care of William Pafford, Lunatic

12 March 1844 the same Thomas Flincher and Martin Flincher were again placed in charge of all of the estate of William Pafford,Lunatic, to take care of said Wm.Pafford.

third document) appoints William Fincher guardian for William Pafford
1845 March term 1845.$96.00 per aannum . Wm.Fincher is claiming that he is owed $107.66½ for 'articles furnished to his ward and family'

10 March 1846 Stokes Co., N. C. Martin Flincher and William Flincher are bound for $200. to take care of William Pafford,Lunatic

14 March 1848 James Davis and William Davis for $400.00 paid to the State of N. C. in trust for the care of William Pafford, Lunatic

March term of 1849...hand written account from James Davis, Guardian of William Pafford gives an accounting of what is left of estate... and amount due him, (I think, writing in very poor) $4.48

then he writes ' My ward is dece'd'

So William Pafford, Rev. Soldier died sometime before March of 1849

Vivian Jordan

My Reconstruction of the Pafford family from NC, TN, VA

Vivian Jordan May 1987

Stokes Co.,NC

William in 1790 Census has 2 malesunder 16; 5 females (1 is wife??)

William 1800 has 2 males 16-26; 1 female 45+ (a wife??)

William 1810 has 1 m 26-45 1 f 45+ (wife??)
1 m 10-16 1 f 10-16
2 m -10 1 f -10

Theory: The 2 males, 16-26 yrs in 1800 could be the Thomas 26-45 in Germantown and the Thomas in Sauratown that were in 1810 with almost identical families. The similarity of family age grouping makes me lean strongly to the fact that it is one man, some how enumerated twice!!

The 1 m 10-16 could be my John b ca 1800

William 1820 has no children enumerated, just female, prob. a wife

Thomas 1820 is 45+ in Warren Co., TN. It is his son, James, who takes the mules to GEorgis to sell and dies there. Thomas could be a brother to William

George 1820 45+ who could also be a brother to William. George has a son the right age to be my John,1800. George disappears from the census unless he is the older male, living with my John in 1830 (VA)

UNFORTUNATELY, THE TN CENSUS FOR 1810 & 1820 IS NOT COMPLETE, SO THAT LEAVES A GAPE

William 1830 is now listed 60-70 yrs, in Stokes Co., NC his 2nd wife and no children.

John 1830 is in Washington Co.,VA 30-40 with a male 50-60. This could be the George of 1820 and perhaps John's father

Thomas 1840 in DeKalb Co.,TN is 70-80. Probably the same Thomas in 1820 Warren Co.,TN and could be a brother to William
